Development and Equity

An Interdisciplinary Exploration by Ten Scholars from Africa, Asia and Latin America

With a Foreword by Her Majesty Queen Máxima of the Netherlands

Edited by

Dick Foeken
Ton Dietz
Leo de Haan
Linda Johnson
Contents

Foreword: Development Happens from the Inside vii

Her Majesty Queen Máxima of the Netherlands
Chair of the Curatorium of the Prince Claus Chair

Preface: The Prince Claus Chair in Development and Equity viii

The Editors

List of Maps, Figures, Tables, Photos and Boxes x

Development and Equity—Introduction to the Lustrum Conference of the Prince Claus Chair in Development and Equity 1
Leo de Haan, Ton Dietz & Dick Foeken

1 A Fresh Perspective on Economics and Equity 13
Syed Mansoob Murshed

2 ‘Waithood’: Youth Transitions and Social Change 28
Alcinda Honwana

3 Beyond Survival: Militarism, Equity and Women's Security 41
Amina Mama

4 Development, Equity, Gender, Health, Poverty and Militarization: Is there a Link in the Countries of West Africa? 69
Irene Akua Agyepong

5 The Right to Stay Home: Equity and the Struggle of Migrant Indigenous Peoples 87
Gaspar Rivera-Salgado

6 Towards a Territorial, Multi-Actor and Multi-Level Approach for Sustainable Development Cooperation and Social Responsibility Policies 105
Patricia Almeida Ashley

7 Gender Equality and Muslim Women: Negotiating Expanded Rights in Muslim Majority and Immigrant Contexts 118
Rema Hammami

8 Identities and Access to Energy: A Case From India 132
Atul Kumar

9 Gender Equity and Governance in Pakistan: Looking through Leventhal's Concept of Organizational Justice 144
Nasira Jabeen

10 Looking through the Leventhal Lens: Is Gender Equity in the Philippines a Puzzle? 156
Stella Quimbo
11 Bargaining Positions and Trust in Ethiopian Coffee Cooperatives: A Gender Perspective 167
   Annemarie Groot Kormelinck

12 The Right to Development: Can States be Held Responsible? 191
   Nienke van der Have

13 Responsible Business Practices of Dutch Enterprises in Kenyan Agri-Business 217
   Lisanne Heemskerk

Appendix
   Equity or Equality? Tenth Anniversary of the Prince Claus Chair 235
   Frans Bieckmann

List of Contributors 240