Contents

List of figures and tables viii
Abbreviations xi
Acknowledgements xiii

1. Why everyone holding an interest in the future of Europe should read this book 1
2. Structure and methodology – coping with complexity 5
3. How Europe set sail to become the most competitive economy in the world 9
   3.1. Economic reforms contained in the Lisbon Strategy 11
   3.2. Ownership and implementation mechanism of the Lisbon Strategy 17
   3.3.1. Early years (2000-2004) – first steps and feedback 22
   3.3.2.1. Five broad Priority Areas – focus on growth and employment 32
   3.3.2.2. Improving the delivery process – making the Lisbon Strategy work 37
   3.3.3. The renewed Lisbon Strategy (2005-2010) – focus on implementation 42
   3.3.3.1. National Reform Programmes – key tool of the renewed Lisbon Strategy 45
   3.3.3.2. The Community Lisbon Programme – action at Community-level 54
3.4. The European Commission’s evaluation (2010) 57
3.5. Europe 2020 – The EU’s vision of a European social market economy 65
   3.5.1. Economic reforms contained in the Europe 2020 Strategy 67
   3.5.2. Ownership and implementation mechanism of the Europe 2020 Strategy 71
4. Evaluating the Lisbon Strategy 77
   4.1. The Lisbon “Strategy Map” – creating the assessment framework 79
   4.2. Underlying assumptions of the assessment framework 83
   4.2.1. Reforms predating the Lisbon Strategy 83
   4.2.2. Clarifying the goal of the Lisbon Strategy – defining competitiveness 85
   4.2.3. How to evaluate the performance of the new Member States? 95
   4.2.4. Accounting for change in the Lisbon Strategy 99
4.3. Review of existing evaluations – drawing lessons for the assessment framework 106
   4.3.1. Review of methodologies 110
4.3.2. Review of results

4.4. Completing the assessment framework – a new evaluation of the Member States performance

4.4.1. Operationalizing competitiveness in the context of the Lisbon Strategy

4.4.2. Choice of indicators

4.4.3. Scoring Scale and calibration of indicators

4.5. Applying the assessment framework – identifying heroes and villains

4.6. Quantifying the success of the Lisbon Strategy – evaluating aggregate performance

4.7. Evaluating the Community-level and implementation mechanism

4.7.1. How successful was the Community-dimension?

4.7.2. How successful was the implementation mechanism (OMC)?

4.8. Was the Lisbon Strategy successful?

5. Europe 2020 – Have the lessons been learned?

5.1. Realizing the EU’s vision of a European social market economy – a clear goal?

5.2. Lessons on implementation

5.3. Should Europe 2020 be saved?

6. Rethinking the rationale for a common European economic policy – An “Austrian Perspective”

6.1. Questioning the scope of a European economic strategy

6.2. Optimal prerogative devolution

6.3. Europe 2020 prerogatives

6.4. Towards a European economic government?

6.4.1. Towards a European welfare state – does a European social model exist?

6.4.2. Saving the planet by centralizing environmental protection?

6.4.3. Reconciling externalities and heterogeneous preferences

6.5. The myth of welfare state retrenchment – the ideological debate regarding the OMC

7. Thoughts for a more liberal Europe

7.1. A liberal vision for Europe – rediscovering the essence of being united in diversity

7.2. “Competitive Europe” – a liberal alternative to Europe 2020

Bibliography

Appendix 1 – Ten key objectives of the 2008-2010 CLP

Appendix 2 – Architecture of Europe 2020

Appendix 3 – Calibration of indicators – underlying assumptions

Appendix 4 – Calibration of indicators
Appendix 5 – Calculation of Level, Progress and Aggregate Scores 418
Appendix 6 – Sensitivity Analysis 434
Appendix 7 – NRP Ownership Index 436
Appendix 8 – European Semester 437