Contents

Preface xv
Acknowledgements xxii

Part I
On a Global Stage: The Context of International Management 1

1 On a Global Stage: The World of International Management 3

International Challenge: New Balance: Still Running with Production in the United States 4

International Business: A World of Constant Change 5

Globalization and the Growth of International Business 7

A Snapshot of Regional Trends 9

International Insights: Russia: Corruption in the Wild, Wild East 18

Key Challenges Facing International Business 21

Managing in a Challenging International Environment 27

Chapter Summary 31

Discussion Questions 31

Up to the Challenge? New Balance Makes “Made in the U.S.A.” Lean and High-Tech 32

International Development: International Management: Living at 35,000 Feet? 33

From Theory to International Practice: Hitting Home: Understanding Your Local “China Syndrome” 34

Notes 35

2 Legal and Political Foundations of International Management 41

International Challenge: Crouching Tiger, Hidden Knockoffs: Making It and Faking It in China 42

The Legal Environment of International Management 44
CONTENTS

PART II

Interacting Effectively in an International Environment
127

4 Making Distinctions Across Cultures: Implications for International Management
129

- International Challenge: Hidden Strengths Is India the Proverbial “Elephant” in the Global Room?
  130
- Defining and Understanding Culture
  131
- Classifying Cultures around the Globe
  133

- International Insights: Old-Fashioned Chinese Guanxi Gets a Decidedly Yiddish Edge . . . and Begins to Look More Like Schmoozing All the Time 136
- International Insights: It’s a Small Park After All: Queuing Up at the House of the Mouse
  146

Global Innovations: Sharing Is Caring (about Market Penetration):
- Facebook in Unfamiliar Places
  152
- The Implications of Culture for International Management
  153
- How Individuals and Corporations Can Make Better Sense of Culture 156

Chapter Summary
158

Discussion Questions
159

Up to the Challenge? The Steady Rise of the World’s Largest Democracy 160

- International Development: Understanding Your Orientation toward Individualism—Collectivism
  161
- From Theory to International Practice: The Cultural Minefield of International Gift Giving 163

Notes
165

5 Perception, Interpretation, and Attitudes Across Cultures
169

- International Challenge: Desperately Seeking Latin Culture
  170
- Perception, Interpretation, and Attitudes Across Cultures
  171

- International Insights: Getting “Carded” in Japan: Perception and Business Card Ritual 174
- Interpretation of Perceptions
  179

- International Insights: Attributions on TV
  183
- Attitudes
  183

- International Insights: Making the Right Impression on Your Chinese Boss or Partner 193
- The Effects of Attitudes and Stereotypes
  196

- International Insights: There is No “i” in Havana
  197

Chapter Summary
199

Discussion Questions
199

Up to the Challenge? Putting the Culture Back into Housewives
200

International Development: Measuring Your Perceptual Orientation to Time
201
CONTENTS

From Theory to International Practice: Conducting a Cultural Audit of China 202
Global Innovations: Online and at the Head of the Line for Internet Business in China 203
Notes 204

6 Communicating Effectively Across Cultures 211

International Challenge: A Small Firm Needs a Communication Boost to Get the Chips Off Their Shoulders . . . and Off Their Shelves 212
Communicating Effectively Across Cultures 213
Global Innovations: They Have Ways of Making You Talk:
A Japanese Firm Requires English 218
International Insights: The Best Care in the Air Is Cross-Cultural:
Miscommunication can be Dangerous to Your Well-being 220
Communicating in Foreign Languages: Plenty of Room for Error 222
International Insights: Many Americans "Strike Out" When Communicating Cross-Culturally
Nonverbal Communication 236
Chapter Summary 241
Discussion Questions 242
Up to the Challenge? Advances in Intercultural Communication—the Low-Tech Way 242
International Development: Moshi, Moshi: Overcoming Cultural Barriers to Communication 243
From Theory to International Practice: We Have Ways of Making You Talk: Researching a Foreign Language 245
Notes 247

INTEGRATIVE CASE 2: CHIBA INTERNATIONAL, INC. (IMD, SWITZ.) 252

Part III
Capitalizing on International Opportunities 263

7 Managing Conflict and Conducting Effective Negotiations 265

International Challenge: Two Sides of a Common Border: Negotiations between Mexicans and Americans 266
A World of Conflict 268
The Role of "Face" in Intercultural Conflict 274
International Insights: Get out of my "Face": The Importance of Respect Across Cultures 275
Other Responses to Conflict 277
International Insights: Conflict in the Middle Kingdom: The Fan Family Feud 279
Understanding International Negotiation 281
Global Innovations: Getting to "Yes": Negotiating Safely in a Hostage Crisis 281
International Insights: The Devil Is in the Details: The Meaning of Compromise Across Cultures 290
Chapter Summary 295
Discussion Questions 295
Up to the Challenge? The Mexican and American Negotiation Gap: Returning El Norte, Empty-Handed 296
International Development: Assessing and Comparing Your Conflict Management Style 297
From Theory to International Practice: Characteristic Features of Negotiation Behavior in Countries around the World 299
Notes 300

8 Taking Stock: Developing International Strategy 305

International Challenge: Localization and Integration: One Company’s Solution to the “Either-Or” Dilemma 306
International Strategy: Deciding How to Compete Abroad 307
Corporate Strategy Options in International Business 316
The Process of Developing International Strategy 326
International Insights: Krafting Strategy for International Markets 328
Global Innovations: A Strategic Fast Food Fight: McDonald’s Faces Tough Local Competition from Jollibee in the Philippines 333
Organizational Requirements for Successful International Strategy 335
Chapter Summary 337
Discussion Questions 338
Up to the Challenge? General Electric Upends “Glocalization” in Favor of “Reverse Innovation” 338
International Development: Conducting a Company Situation Analysis 340
From Theory to International Practice: Making Moves on a Global Stage 341
Notes 342

9 Jumping In: Foreign Market Entry and Ownership Options 347

International Challenge: General Electric Powers up in China . . . But at a Technological Price 348
Taking the Plunge 349
International Insights: U.S. Firm Battled a Japanese Giant to Protect Its Technology 355
Foreign Market Entry Options 358
International Insights: Trouble Can Find American Exporters at Home 360
Global Innovations: McDonald’s and Other U.S. Franchisors Find Foreign Growth Is Golden 366
International Insights: Danone’s Chinese Joint Venture Turns Sour 377
Chapter Summary 382
Selecting and Developing International Employees 458
International Insights: Glamour, Grunge, or Both? In the Trenches with International Managers 459
Cultural Differences in Selection and Development Procedures 462
Expatriates: Work a World Away 464
International Insights: Hardship Post or Comfortable Sojourn? Chinese Expats in the West 473
Returning Home: The Challenge of Repatriation 476
Chapter Summary 478
Discussion Questions 478
Up to the Challenge? Trying Fitting in Across an Ocean of Differences 479
From Theory to International Practice: International Human Resource Management in Specific Firms 482
Notes 484

12 Evaluating and Rewarding Employees Worldwide 489
International Challenge: Multinationals Are Making it Harder for Employees to Accept Expatriate Assignments 490
Employee Performance Appraisal: The Global Challenge 492
Multinationals and Performance Evaluation for Expatriates 493
Who Should Evaluate Expatriate Performance? 495
When Should Expatriate Performance Be Evaluated? 499
Context Variables That Impact Evaluations of Expatriates 500
Some Additional Challenges with Cross-Border Performance Evaluations 501
Evaluating Foreign-Born Employees 503
International Insights: Some Advice for Providing Performance Feedback to Foreign-Born Employees 505
Compensation of International Employees 506
International Insights: Taking a Holiday from Vacations: Working Overtime to Change a National Habit 511
Explaining Compensation Differences Across Countries 512
The Challenges of Expatriate Compensation 513
Methods for Compensating Expatriates 515
Global Innovations: What Do Zippers, Prozac, a Dozen Roses, and a Box of Titleists Have in Common? They Are All in a Day's Survey 522
Chapter Summary 527
Discussion Questions 527
Up to the Challenge? Are American Expatriates Becoming Too Expensive for Multinationals? 528
International Development: Giving Negative Performance Feedback Across Cultures 530
From Theory to International Practice: Assembling an Expatriate Compensation Package

Notes

13 Managing Cultural Groups: From Small Work

International Challenge: SAP’s Plans Hit a Cultural Barrier

Managing Teams and Smaller Work Groups Across Cultures

Group Productivity Across Cultures

International Insights: Team Dynamics at 35,000 Feet

Diversity: Working with Others from Different Groups

International Insights: Cross-Cultural Teams Open in the Catskills

Labor Relations in and Across Cultures

Labor Unions Across Countries

International Insights: Labor Relations on the Brink in Belgium: A Cautionary Tale for Firms Doing Business in Europe

Global Innovations: A New Twist on “Dutch Treat”: Government and Private Support Combines to Save Jobs in the Netherlands

Putting Agreements into Practice

Chapter Summary

Discussion Questions

Up to the Challenge? SAP’s Decision to Become Less German

International Development: Understanding Japanese Group Decision-Making

From Theory to International Practice: Developing Expertise in International Labor Trends

Notes