Contents

Acknowledgments vii

1. Introduction and Guide to the Book 1

PART ONE: Elites, Entrepreneurs, and the Middle Class: The Top 1 Percent and the Rest

2. Economic Elites and the Super-Rich in the Twenty-First Century 25
3. Productive Elites? On Entrepreneurship, the Technostructure, and the Corporation 55
4. The Fragmentation of the Middle Class in the Neoliberal Era 68

PART TWO: Economic Crisis and the Instability of Financial Capitalism

5. Stories of Financial Crisis and Austerity from the Nineteenth to the Twenty-first Centuries 85
6. Making Sense of Crises in Capitalism: An Overview of Theories and Approaches 110

PART THREE: Elites, Diaspora Migration and Social Movements in Global Capitalism

7. The International Circulation of Elites and Global Social Movements 131
Contents

8. Migrant Diasporas, Development, and the Attachment to National Identity 142

PART FOUR: Economic Democracy and the 99 Percent

10. Epilogue: Deconstructing Neoliberal Capitalism 181

References 191
Index 203