Government-Linked Companies and Sustainable, Equitable Development

Edited by
Edmund Terence Gomez, François Bafoil, and Kee-Cheok Cheong
Contents

List of illustrations  ix
List of contributors  xi
Preface and acknowledgements  xii

Introduction: The state's return to business: government-linked companies in the post-crisis global economy
EDMUND TERENCE GOMEZ, FRANÇOIS BAFOIL, AND KEE-CHEOK CHEONG

1 Economic liberalization and the performance of public sector enterprises in India
SUNIL MANI 18

2 The Chinese state, state enterprises, and the global crisis
KEE-CHEOK CHEONG, LI RAN, AND ZHANG MIAO 39

3 The creative role of the state and entrepreneurship: the case of Taiwan
MICHELLE F. HSIEH 60

4 South Korea: government-linked companies as agents of economic development
JONG G. BACK 82

5 The state's business: government-linked companies, the financial sector, and socioeconomic development in Malaysia
EDMUND TERENCE GOMEZ, ELSA SATKUNASINGAM, AND LEE HWOK AUN 103

6 Poland: a systemic transforming process from state-planned to liberal economy
FRANÇOIS BAFOIL 127
7 Internationalization and a competitiveness agenda: state development finance agencies and the financial crisis in Brazil and Chile 152
ALVARO ARTIGAS

Index 171