Legends in Consumer Behavior
RUSSELL W. BELK

Series Editor
Jagdish N. Sheth, Ph.D.

Volume 4

CONSUMER SENSE OF SELF
AND Identity

Volume Editor
John W. Schouten, Ph.D.

Contributors
Aaron Ahuvia, Ph.D.
Ayalla Ruvio, Ph.D.
Kelly Tian, Ph.D.
Contents

Appendix of Sources                         ix
Timeline                                    xiii
Legends in Consumer Behavior               xv
Legends in Consumer Behavior: Russell W. Belk xix
Volume Introduction by John W. Schouten    xxiii

1. Explanations for Congruence between Patron Stereotypes and Patron Self Concepts  1
2. Generational Differences in the Meanings of Things, Products, and Activities  7
3. Identity and the Relevance of Market, Personal, and Community Objects  22
4. Possessions and the Extended Self  33
5. Possessions and the Sense of Past  85
6. Artifacts, Identity, and Transition: Favorite Possessions of Indians and Indian Immigrants to the United States (with Raj Mehta)  111
7. Metaphoric Relationships with Pets  136
8. Material Culture and the Extended or Unextended Self in Our University Offices (with Joel C. Watson)  156
9. Extended Self and Possessions in the Workplace (with Kelly Tian)  170
10. Consumption and Identity  195
11. Representing Global Consumers: Desire, Possession, and Identity  211
12. People and Things  230
13. Possessions and Self  260
14. Disney Discourses of Self and Other: Animality, Primitivity, Modernity, and Postmodernity (with Shona Bettany)  270
15. Extended Self in a Digital Age  286
16. Shared Possessions/Shared Self (with Rosa Llamas)  296
17. Tourist Photographs: Signs of Self (with Joyce Hsiu-yen Yeh)  305
Perspectives of Other Scholars

18. Beyond 'Beyond the Extended Self': Russ Belk on Identity
   by Aaron Ahuvia 319
20. Epic Consumer Research by Kelly Tian 330

John Schouten Interviews Russell Belk

21. “Everything I Research Teaches Me Something about Myself” 337

About the Editors and Contributors 340