The Routledge Companion to International Entrepreneurship

Edited by Stephanie A. Fernhaber and Shameen Prashantham
Contents

List of figures xi
List of tables xii
List of contributors xiii
Acknowledgements xviii

An introduction to the Routledge Companion to International Entrepreneurship 1
Stephanie A. Femhaber and Shameen Prashantham

PART I
The emergence of international entrepreneurship 5

1 International entrepreneurship: a review and future directions 7
   Alex Rialp, Josep Rialp and Gary A. Knight

2 “Where to” international entrepreneurship?: an exploration of seminal articles 29
   Pavlos Dimitratos and Nicolas Li

PART II
The international entrepreneur 45

3 Cognition in international entrepreneurship 47
   Hana Milanov and Benedikt Maissenhäler

4 The international entrepreneur: from experience to action 70
   Svante Andersson

5 The international social entrepreneur 84
   R. Scott Marshall, Jude Lieberman and Michelle Pagès

6 Inside the transnational entrepreneur 102
   Dave Crick and Shiv Chaudhry
PART III
Strategic issues for entrepreneurial internationalization

7 Networks and social capital: an internationalizing entrepreneurial firm’s network is its net worth
   Sylvie Chetty and Cecilia Pahlberg

8 Is there more to learn? Knowledge and learning in new venture internationalization research
   Harry J. Sapienza, Dirk De Clercq and Liman Zhao

9 The role of capabilities in international entrepreneurship
   Christiane Prange

10 Understanding eINVs through the lens of prior research in entrepreneurship, international business and international entrepreneurship
   A. Rebecca Reuber, Eileen Fischer and Anna Morgan-Thomas

11 Venture capital and international entrepreneurship
   Joseph A. LiPuma

12 International entrepreneurship in a world of broad triad regions: an international business perspective
   Alan M. Rugman, In Hyeock (Ian) Lee and Siri Terjesen

PART IV
Implications of entrepreneurial internationalization and future research

13 International entrepreneurship: performance and survival implications
   Per Servais and Erik S. Rasmussen

14 Policy implications of international entrepreneurship
   Rod B. McNaughton and Juan Pellegrino

15 Future agenda for research design in international entrepreneurship
   Niina Nummela

Index