GIVE A MAN A FISH

Reflections on the New Politics of Distribution

JAMES FERGUSON

Foreword by Thomas Gibson
Contents

Foreword by Thomas Gibson vii
Preface and Acknowledgments xi

Introduction.
Cash Transfers and the New Welfare States
From Neoliberalism to the Politics of Distribution  1

1. Give a Man a Fish
From Patriarchal Productionism to the Revalorization of Distribution 35

2. What Comes after the Social?
Historicizing the Future of Social Protection in Africa 63

3. Distributed Livelihoods
Dependence and the Labor of Distribution in the Lives of the Southern African Poor (and Not-So-Poor) 89

4. The Social Life of Cash Payments
Money, Markets, and the Mutualities of Poverty 119

5. Declarations of Dependence
Labor, Personhood, and Welfare in Southern Africa 141

6. A Rightful Share
Distribution beyond Gift and Market 165

Conclusion.
What Next for Distributive Politics? 191

Notes 217
References 237
Index 259