

Editors:
Sarah Schoenmaekers
Wouter Devroe
Niels Philipsen

State Aid and Public Procurement in the European Union

CONTENTS

Preface	v
About the Editors	xi

Modernisation of State Aid Rules in the European Union. Application of Economic Concepts and Principles

Doris Hildebrand.....	1
1. Introduction	1
2. Economic Concepts and Principles in State Aid.....	2
2.1. Refined Economic Approach in the 2005 State Aid Action Plan	2
2.2. 2012 State Aid Modernisation Programme (SAM).....	3
2.3. The Balancing Test	8
2.3.1. Market Failures	9
2.3.2. Structure of the Balancing Test	11
3. Modernised State Aid Guidelines	12
3.1. 2013 Regional Aid Guidelines	12
3.2. 2014 Environmental Protection and Energy Guidelines	13
3.3. Ex Post Evaluations.....	14
4. Conclusion	16
References	16

Defining the Scope of State Aid. How Tax Cases Affect the State Aid Framework

Raymond H.C. Luja.....	19
1. Introduction	19
2. What is the Advantage of Indirect Aid?.....	20
3. Do Directives Give Carte Blanche?.....	23
4. The GBER as a Procedural Nightmare	25
5. Ex Officio References by National Judges.....	26
5.1. Tax Courts Invoking State Aid.....	26
5.2. National Tax Authorities Invoking State Aid in Court	28

6.	How Does an Analytical Taxation of Royalties Fit within the State Aid Framework?	29
7.	Looking Forward: Taxation of Public Enterprises	31
8.	Concluding Remarks	32
Ex Post Evaluation of State Aid
	Caroline Buts and Marc Jegers	33
1.	Introduction	33
2.	The Evolution of Economic Analysis and the Emergence of Ex Post Evaluation in State Aid Control	34
3.	Literature Review	36
4.	Existing Practices and Methodological Guidance	37
5.	Possibilities for Multi-Criteria Analysis	40
6.	Conclusion	43
	References	44
The Evolving Treatment of Services of General Economic Interest under EU Law
	Wouter Devroe and David Gabathuler	47
1.	Context	47
2.	What is an SGEI?	49
	2.1. Provision of a Service in the General Interest	49
	2.2. Existence of a Market Failure	51
	2.3. Universal and Compulsory Nature of the Service	52
3.	The Present: Altmark, SGEI Package and Member State Reporting	52
	3.1. Background (Altmark)	52
	3.2. 2011 SGEI Package	55
	3.2.1 'Altmark' Communication	55
	3.2.1.1. Key State Aid Concepts	55
	3.2.1.2. Altmark Criteria	58
	3.2.2. De minimis Regulation	60
	3.2.3. Commission Decision	61
	3.2.4. Framework Communication	62
	3.3. Reporting	64
4.	Sectoral Application of the Rules on SGEI	68
	4.1. Introduction	68
	4.2. Energy	68
	4.2.1. Legal Framework	68
	4.2.2. Commission Practice	69
	4.3. Environment and Waste	73
5.	Conclusion	75

Compensation for the Net Extra Costs of Public Service Obligations
Phedon Nicolaides.....	77
1. Introduction	77
2. Clarifications: (i) Altmark vs. market economy investor principle, (ii) Altmark vs. compatible State aid, (iii) Altmark vs. Article 106(2) TFEU....	80
3. What Constitutes a Genuine SGEE?	80
4. Under-Provision by the Market.....	81
5. Pre-Determined Parameters of Compensation and No Over-Compensation... ..	84
6. Conclusions.....	85
To Procure or Not to Procure? That’s the Question!
Sarah Schoenmaekers.....	87
1. The Notion of ‘Contracting Authority’.....	88
1.1. The Status of (Dutch) Health Insurance Companies	90
1.2. The Status of (Dutch) Housing Cooperatives.....	92
1.2.1. Current Regime.....	92
1.2.2. Future Regime.....	96
2. Thresholds.....	98
3. Conclusion	99
2014 Procurement Reforms and Bid Rigging: Mixed Blessings or Our Happily Ever After?
Stefan E. Weishaar.....	101
1. Introduction	101
2. Competition Law and Bid Rigging	102
2.1. Fines	103
2.2. Criminal Sanctions.....	104
2.3. Public Enforcement	104
2.4. Private Enforcement.....	106
3. Public Procurement and Bid Rigging.....	108
3.1. Lowering Bidders’ Costs	109
3.2. Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises.....	110
3.3. Deterrence	111
3.4. Most Economically Advantageous Tenders	112
4. Conclusion	113
Concessions and Public Procurement
Steven Van Garsse.....	115
1. Introduction	115
2. The Concept of the Public Works and Services Concession is a Loaded One ..	116
3. Concessions versus Public Contracts	118
4. Written Contract for Pecuniary Interest	119

5.	Execution of Works or Provision of Services	121
6.	Operating Risk	123
7.	The Legal Regime in the New Concessions Directive	126
8.	Closing Considerations.....	127

EU Green Public Procurement Policy Modernisation Package, Eco-Labeling and Framing Measures

	Hanna Schebesta	129
1.	Introduction	129
	1.1. Environmental Considerations in EU Public Procurement	129
	1.2. Early Case Law Driving the Development of a Green Procurement Policy	130
2.	Green Public Procurement and Directive 2014/24/EU	132
	2.1. Technical Specifications (Article 42, Annex VII)	132
	2.2. Qualitative Selection Criteria (Articles 57–64)	133
	2.3. Award Criteria (Articles 67–69)	133
	2.4. Contract Performance Criteria (Article 70–73).....	134
3.	Use of Eco-Labels.....	135
	3.1. The Dutch Eco-Labels Case in the Light of the Procurement Modernisation Package	136
	3.2. Explaining the New Approach of Directive 2014/24/EU.....	137
4.	Eco-Labels and their Significance for Green Public Procurement	138
	4.1. Content Level Considerations.....	138
	4.2. Governance and Legitimacy.....	140
	4.3. Influence of Public Procurement on Private Purchases.....	141
5.	EU Green Public Procurement Framing Measures	141
	5.1. Analysis of the Framing Measures.....	142

Transparency Obligations for Parking Services

	Len Broeders.....	145
1.	Introduction	145
2.	History.....	145
3.	The Court of Justice and the Transparency Obligation.....	147
4.	The Judicial Procedure in the Netherlands	149
5.	Conclusion	150