States and Markets in Hydrocarbon Sectors

Edited by

Andrei V. Belyi
Senior Researcher, University of Tartu, Estonia

Kim Talus
Professor, University of Eastern Finland, Finland
Contents

Foreword vii
Preface xiii
Notes on Contributors xiv

Introduction 1
Andrei V. Belyi and Kim Talus

Part I  The International Political Economy of State–Market Interaction in Energy

1 States and Markets in the Oil Industry
John V. Mitchell and Beth Mitchell  17

2 States and Markets in Energy Policy
Pami Aalto  40

3 Regional Institutions and Energy Market: Systems, Societies, Communities
Andrei V. Belyi and Andrey Makarychev  61

Part II  States and Markets in Hydrocarbon Export-Dependent States

4 State Capitalism and the Politics of Resources
Wojciech Ostrowski  83

5 State and Markets in Russia's Hydrocarbon Sectors: Domestic Specificities and Interrelations with the West
Andrei V. Belyi and Catherine Locatelli  103

6 The Dynamic of Latin American National Oil Companies' Evolution Case Studies: Pemex and PdVSA
Isabelle Rousseau  122

7 The Question of ‘Security’ of Middle East Oil Supply Revisited: Domestic Crisis in a Middle East North African Oil Producer and Its Impact on International Markets – The Case of Libya
Marat Terterov and Claudia Nocente  144
Contents

Part III The 'Consumer' State Perspective

8 State–Market Interrelations in the US Onshore and Offshore Oil and Gas Sectors 171
Roman Sidortsov and Benjamin Sovacool

9 European Union Energy: New Role for States and Markets 198
Kim Talus

10 China’s Oil and Gas Industry: Stranded Between the Plan and the Market 214
Philip Andrews-Speed

11 State–Market Interaction in Hydrocarbon Sector: The Cases of Australia and Japan 240
Vlado Vivoda

Conclusion 266
Andrei V. Belyi and Kim Talus

Index 270