MERCHANT COMMUNITIES IN ASIA, 1600–1980

EDITED BY

Lin Yu-ju and Madeleine Zelin

PICKERING & CHATTO
2015
CONTENTS

Acknowledgements xi
List of Contributors xiii
List of Figures and Tables xvii

Preface – Lin Yu-ju
Introduction – Madeleine Zelin

Part I: Merchant Communities as Institutions

1 Trade, Public Affairs and the Formation of Merchant Associations in Taiwan in the Eighteenth Century – Lin Yu-ju 11
2 Seoul Merchant Communities in Late Chosön Korea – Cho Young-Jun and Lee Hun-Chang 29
3 Rice, Treaty Ports and the Chaozhou Chinese Lianhao Associate Companies: Construction of a South China–Hong Kong–Southeast Asia Commodity Network, 1850s–1930s – Choi Chi-cheung 53

Part II: Merchant Communities as Networks

4 The Rise of Chinese Commercial Dominance in Early Modern Southeast Asia – Kwee Hui Kian 79
5 The Merchants of the Korea–China Ginseng Trade in the Late Nineteenth Century – Ishikawa Ryota 95

Part III: Merchant Communities and Empire

7 Spanish Colonial Policy toward Chinese Merchants in Eighteenth-Century Philippines – Tina S. Clemente 123
8 Merchant Communities in a Qasba (Market Town) of Western India in the Late Maratha and the Early British Period (1760s–1840s) – Ogawa Michihiro 141
9 Mid-Nineteenth-Century Nagasaki: Western and Japanese Merchant Communities within Commercial and Political Transitions – Robert Hellyer 159

Notes 195

Index 241