CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1
MIA BAY AND ANN FABIAN

PART I: RACE, PLACE, AND RETAIL SPACES

1 Traveling Black/Buying Black: Retail and Roadside Accommodations during the Segregation Era 15
MIA BAY

2 Retail Messages in the Ghetto Belt 34
NAO OYO A. KWATE

3 The Other Migrants: Mexican Shoppers in American Borderlands 57
GERALDO L. CADAVA

4 Southern Retail Campaigns and the Struggle for Black Economic Freedom in the 1950s and 1960s 77
TRACI PARKER

5 Servicing a Racial Regime: Gender, Race, and the Public Space of Department Stores in Baltimore, Maryland, and Johannesburg, South Africa, 1940–1970 99
BRIDGET KENNY

PART II: RACE, RETAIL, AND COMMUNITIES

6 Athabascan Village Stores: Subsistence Shopping in Interior Alaska in the 1940s 123
JOHN W. HEATON

7 Deghettoizing Chinatown: Race and Space in Postwar America 141
ELLEN D. WU

8 Marketing Identity, Negotiating Boundaries: Ethnic Entrepreneurship in the Coffeehouses and Narghile Lounges of Paterson, New Jersey 163
NEISET BAYOUTH
The Changing Politics of Latino Consumption: Debates Related to Downtown Santa Ana’s New Urbanist and Creative City Redevelopment
JOHANA LONDOÑO AND ERUALDO R. GONZÁLEZ

The Spatial Politics of Black Business Closure in Central Brooklyn
STACEY A. SUTTON

PART III: THE INNER LANDSCAPES OF RACIALIZED CONSUMPTION

Selling Voodoo in Migration Metropolises
MELISSA L. COOPER

“A Fantasy in Fashion”: Luxury Dressing and African American Lifestyle Magazines in the 1980s
SIOBHAN CARTER-DAVID

Racial Discrimination in Retail Settings: A Liberation Psychology Perspective
JEROME D. WILLIAMS, GERALDINE ROSA HENDERSON, SOPHIA R. EVETT, AND ANNE-MARIE G. HAKSTIAN

Does the Retail Environment Affect Mental Health? Satisfaction with Neighborhood Retail and Social Well-Being among African Americans in New York City
AZURE B. THOMPSON AND SHARESE N. PORTER

Notes on Contributors
Index