Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xv
Map xix

I A Strategy of Radical and Comprehensive Reform

1 Introduction: Ukraine on the Precipice 3
   What Went Wrong 4
   Something Happened on the Road to Vilnius 9
   A Strategy for Economic Reform 10
   A Vision for Ukraine in 2020 16

2 Why Ukraine Can and Should Opt for Radical Reforms Now 17
   What Are Putin’s Intentions? 18
   Why This Time Is Different in Ukraine 22
   Most Relevant Reform Prototypes 25
   The Power of the Oligarchs Has Declined 26
   The Threat of Populism Is Also on the Wane 32
   The Alternative: Financial Meltdown 35
3 Ukraine Needs Europe as a Model and International Anchor
Europe as an Anchor for Modernization 37
The Dream of Europe 40
European Neighborhood Policy and Eastern Partnership 42
European Association Agreement 43
Growth through Integration into the European Supply Chain 46
Will Ukraine’s European Integration Proceed? 51
Ukraine Needs a Marshall Plan 53

II What Went Wrong
4 Nation Building But Little Reform, 1991–2010 59
Leonid Kravchuk: Preoccupation with Nation Building, but Political Chaos, 1991–94 60
Hyperinflation and Output Collapse, Breeding Rent Seeking and Oligarchs, 1992–94 61
Complicated Relationship with Russia 67
The Orange Revolution: Political Chaos Again, 2004–10 68
Stalemate over Reprivatization, 2005 72
Resolution of a Severe Financial Crisis, 2008–09 73
Conflicts with Russia over Gas and NATO 75

5 The Yanukovych Regime: The Ultimate Predation, 2010–14 79
Oligarchy Restored 80
Brief Economic Reform in 2010 82
Ever Worse Economic Policies Leading to Stagnation 83
Capitalism in One Family 88
Corruption at the Top Level Reaches a New Apogee 91
The Battle over the European Association Agreement 94

III How to Fix It
6 Euromaidan and the Demise of the Yanukovych Regime, November 2013 to February 2014 101
Violence Erupts on the Maidan 102
Yanukovych’s Deal with Putin 104
Ouster of Yanukovych and Restoration of the 2004 Constitution 107
The New Government and Its Program 109
Avoiding the Mistakes of the Orange Revolution 111