Table of contents

Preface by the Ministry of Trade and Industry, Government of Botswana .......................................................... 9

Preface by Mr. Rintaro Tamaki, Deputy Secretary-General, OECD ............. 11

Acronyms and abbreviations ................................................................. 13

Executive summary .............................................................................. 15

Chapter 1. Overview of investment policy challenges and recommendations for Botswana .................................................. 19

Investment policy context .................................................................. 21

Macroeconomic environment ............................................................... 24

Increasing structural change in the economy of Botswana ......................... 31

Main investment policy challenges ...................................................... 34

Investment policy options .................................................................... 39

Notes .................................................................................................... 47

Chapter 2. Investment policy in Botswana ................................................. 51

Steps taken to simplify Botswana’s investment regime ............................... 52

Principle of non-discrimination on laws relating to investment .................. 55

Steps taken to improve processes of property and land ownership registration ........................................................................ 60

Protection of intellectual property rights .............................................. 67

Contract enforcement and Alternative Dispute Settlement systems ............ 71

Guarantees against unlawful expropriation ........................................... 73

International co-operation in the promotion and protection of investment ........................................................................ 76

Notes .................................................................................................... 77

Chapter 3. Investment promotion and facilitation in Botswana ....................... 81

Investment promotion and facilitation strategy ........................................ 82

Establishment of an investment promotion agency .................................. 87

Adequacy of government funding and monitoring of the IPA ..................... 89

Streamlining administrative procedures and learning from investor feedback ........................................................................ 91

Consultative framework among government, the IPA and investors ............ 94
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Investment incentives and their evaluation ........................................... 96
Supporting SME development and promoting investment linkages ............ 106
International and regional initiatives for strengthening investment promotion expertise ........................................................................................................ 118
Strengthening human resource development (HRD) to facilitate investment linkages .......................................................... 119
Improving quality of instruction to better attract investment and leverage its spill-overs .................................................. 122
Better aligning labour supply with the needs of investors ....................... 123
Evaluating the effectiveness of training programmes and involving the private sector .................................................................................................................. 125
Notes ........................................................................................................ 126

Chapter 4. Public governance for sound investment in Botswana ................. 131
Mechanisms for co-ordinating regulatory reforms ................................ 132
Effectiveness of public consultations ..................................................... 138
Measures taken to promote anti-corruption practices in public institutions .............................................................................. 140
Scrutiny and performance of the public service ..................................... 144
Notes ........................................................................................................ 148

Chapter 5. Infrastructure investment framework in Botswana ..................... 153
Strategic importance of infrastructure for investment and competitiveness in Botswana ................................................................. 154
Overview of state of key infrastructure sectors ..................................... 156
Prioritisation and financing of infrastructure needs and priorities .......... 163
Spectrum of public and private provision of infrastructure ..................... 167
Transparency and procedural fairness in infrastructure contracting .......... 170
Regulation and pricing of infrastructure markets to meet end-user needs .................................................................................... 178
Notes ........................................................................................................ 181

Tables

3.1. Doing Business rankings, 2012-13 ......................................................... 93
5.1. Botswana's Infrastructure Competitiveness, 2011-12 and 2012-13 ............ 154
5.2. Spectrum of public and private provision of infrastructure ................. 167