Contents

Preface ix
Foreword xvii
Introduction xix

Section I
Conservation, Cultivation, Consumption and Commerce: Pathways to Biohappiness

1. Towards an Era of Biohappiness 3
2. Biodiversity and Sustainable Food Security 9
3. Biotechnology and Biohappiness 19
4. Integrated Gene Management 27
5. Mangroves 37
6. Plant Variety Protection and Genetic Conservation 47

Section II
Science and Sustainable Food Security

7. The Tsunami and a New Chapter 55
8. Now for the Evergreen Revolution 61
9. Evergreen Revolution and Sustainable Food Security 67
10. Priorities in Agricultural Research and Education 73
Contents

11. Achieving Food Security in Times of Crisis 83
12. Synergy between Food Security Act and Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act 93
13. Common and Differentiated Entitlements: Pathway for Food Security for All 99
15. Role of Sustainability Science 113
16. Towards Eliminating Hunger and Poverty 117

Section III
Food Security in an Era of Climate Change and Civil Strife

17. Copenhagen, Tsunami and Hunger 127
18. Monsoon Management in an Era of Climate Change 131
19. Media and the Farm Sector 137
20. Resolving Asia’s Contradictions: Growth Versus Inequities 143
21. From Killing Fields to Smiling Gardens in Northern Sri Lanka 147
22. Finding Common International Goals 153
23. Looking Back and Looking Ahead 157

Section IV
Towards Furthering Biohappiness

24. New Technologies for a Small Farm Productivity Revolution 169
25. Overcoming the Curse of Malnutrition 175
26. Traditional Knowledge and Modern Science 181
27. Role of International Years in Meeting the Zero Hunger Challenge 185
28. Vision of a Food-Secure India 191

Index 203