

Recruiting Immigrant Workers: Austria 2014

Table of contents

Executive summary	13
Zusammenfassung	19
Assessment and recommendations	25
Zusammenfassung und Empfehlungen	33
Chapter 1. Context for labour migration to Austria	43
Introduction	44
Labour market conditions and specificities of the Austrian labour market	45
Demographic outlook, labour shortages and the expected role of migration	47
A first glance at the evolution of labour migration to Austria	52
Notes	57
References	59
Chapter 2. Evolution of Austria’s labour migration policy	61
The “Guestworker” recruitment (1961-1973)	62
The oil crisis and its aftermath (1973-1989)	64
1989-2011: The fall of the Iron Curtain, the introduction of a quota system and the key worker regulation	65
Since 2011: Further opening to skilled migration and the introduction of a points based system: the “Red-White-Red” Card	69
Notes	71
References	73
Chapter 3. Permanent labour migration to Austria	75
Overview	76
Flows by category	77
Main categories	79
Characteristics of permanent migration flows for employment	105
Key issues in the administrative framework	113
Notes	123
References	129

Chapter 4. Temporary labour migration to Austria.....	131
Overview	132
Main categories	134
Notes	151
References	155
Chapter 5. The respective roles of labour migration and free mobility in Austria....	157
Notes	163
Chapter 6. Matching demand and supply – Austria as a destination for labour migration.....	165
Austria’s attractiveness	166
Initiatives to attract labour migrants.....	169
Matching employer needs and migrant candidates	171
Notes	176
References	177
Annex A. Supplementary tables and figures.....	179

Figures

Figure 1.1. Unemployment rate by region, 2012	46
Figure 1.2. Estimated difference between the age-related entries and exits from the working-age population.....	47
Figure 1.3. Percentage of employers reporting difficulties filling jobs due to lack of available talent.....	50
Figure 1.4. “Skilled labour is readily available”, approval rates of employers from Austria and other OECD countries	50
Figure 1.5. Employers in Europe stating that labour shortages hinder production	51
Figure 1.6. Permanent immigration in selected OECD countries by category of entry or of status change, 2012	53
Figure 1.7. Permanent migration for employment into selected OECD countries as percentage of the total population, 2012.....	54
Figure 1.8. Evolution of permanent migration for employment to Austria as percentage of the total population and average of selected OECD countries, 2003-12.....	55
Figure 3.1. Evolution of AMS approvals for permanent labour migration to Austria by country of origin and permit issuances, 2005-13.....	76
Figure 3.2. Evolution of permit issuances for permanent labour migration to Austria by category, 2011-13	78
Figure 3.3. The application process for admission as a key worker under the RWR-Card mode	84