Cross-Cultural Collaboration and Leadership in Modern Organizations

Nancy D. Erbe
California State University Dominguez Hills, California

Anthony H. Normore
California State University Dominguez Hills, California

A volume in the Advances in Human Resources Management and Organizational Development (AHRMOD) Book Series
Table of Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................................................... xiv

Acknowledgment ........................................................................................................................... xxi

Section 1

Field-Proven Practices

Chapter 1
Tools Deepening Cross Cultural Collaboration and Leadership ......................................................... 1
Nancy D. Erbe, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
Swaranjit Singh, California State Education Vendor, USA

Chapter 2
Coordinating Meaning and Joint Identity: Cultivating Leadership and Cross-Cultural Communication in a Divided Community .......................................................... 13
Samuel Peleg, Rutgers University, USA

Chapter 3
Exploring Opportunities and Challenges of Cross-Cultural and International Teaching, Research, and Service for Higher Education Faculty Members ...................................................... 35
Melanie C. Brooks, University of Idaho, USA
Jeffrey S. Brooks, Monash University, Australia

Section 2

Promising Approaches

Chapter 4
Integrative Conflict Resolution: Tools for Loving Praxis in Organizational Leadership ........................ 50
Amanda Smith Byron, Portland State University, USA

Chapter 5
Effective Training for International Cross-Cultural Collaboration and Leadership ............................ 63
Yvette Durazo, National University San Diego, USA
Margaret Manning, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
Giuseppina Wright, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
Chapter 6
Partnering for Purpose: Cross-Cultural Model to Encourage Participation, Exploration, Appreciation, Reflection, and Learning in Undergraduate Education and Beyond .......................... 83

Kirti S. Celly, California State University, USA
Charles E. Thomas, California State University, USA

Section 3
Effective Service of Underserved Communities

Chapter 7

Andres P. Santamaria, Auckland University of Technology, New Zealand
Melinda Webber, The University of Auckland, New Zealand
Lorri J. Santamaria, The University of Auckland, New Zealand

Chapter 8
Culturally Responsive Educational Leadership in Cross-Cultural International Contexts .............. 120

Lorri J. Santamaria, The University of Auckland, New Zealand

Chapter 9
Cross Cultural Collaboration and Leadership: A Success Story ................................................. 140

Kenneth Campa, City Year Los Angeles, USA

Section 4
Mediating Institutions

Chapter 10
Transnational and Cross-Cultural Approaches in Undercover Police Work ........................................ 157

John Irwin, University of Guelph-Humber, Canada
Anthony H. Normore, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA

Chapter 11
Stakeholder Positioning and Cultural Diversity in the Creative Sector: A Case Study of the London Modern Architecture Scene ..................................................................................... 176

Hendrik Leendert Aalbers, Radboud University, The Netherlands
Annemarie Charlotte Kamp, Deloitte Consulting, The Netherlands

Chapter 12
Diversity and the Need for Cross-Cultural Leadership and Collaboration ............................................. 196

Kenneth R. Roth, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
Zachary S. Ritter, University of the Redlands, USA

Chapter 13
Principal Leadership in Diverse Cultures: A Comparative Study ....................................................... 216

Allan Walker, Hong Kong Institute of Education, China
Haiyan Qian, Hong Kong Institute of Education, China
Section 5
Cross Cultural Crucible for Critical Transformation

Chapter 14
Paths to Success: Leveraging Culture, Leadership, and Learning Strategies ........................................ 236
Ana Martins, Zirve University, Turkey
Albino Lopes, University of Lisbon, Portugal
Isabel Martins, Zirve University, Turkey
Orlando Petiz, University of Minho, Portugal

Chapter 15
Cross-Cultural Collaboration for Community-Oriented Policing and Restorative Justice .................... 255
Anthony H. Normore, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
Brian Ellis, Sacramento Police Department, USA
Kerry Clamp, University of Western Sydney, Australia
Craig Paterson, Sheffield Hallam University, UK

Chapter 16
Developing Global Competences through Learning Mobility: A Discussion of the Host
Institution’s Role in Erasmus+ Student Mobility ................................................................. 273
Peter Finell, Centria University of Applied Sciences, Finland

Section 6
Pressing Challenges with Visionary Futures

Chapter 17
Combating Human Trafficking: Recommendations for Police Leadership in Establishing Transnational Collaboration .......................................................... 286
Michael Pittaro, American Military University, USA

Chapter 18
The Philosophy of Using Communicative Intelligence for Cross-Cultural Collaboration ............... 303
Kendall Zoller, Sierra Training Associates, USA

Chapter 19
Beyond Environment, Economy, and Equity: Implementing Power Balancing and Inclusive
Process for Integrating our Agreed Framework of Sustainability ............................................. 321
Jill Sourial, The Relational Center, USA

Compilation of References .......................................................... 335

About the Contributors .......................................................... 378

Index .......................................................... 386