Series Foreword xi
Michele A. Paludi

Foreword xv
Philip E. Poitier

Acknowledgments xix

Introduction xxi
Michele A. Paludi

PART I: WORKPLACE BULLYING: PERSONAL REFLECTIONS, DEFINITIONS, AND IMPACT ON INDIVIDUALS AND ORGANIZATIONS

1. Toppling the Ivory Tower: Bullying in Higher Education: An Interview with the Researchers 3
Martina L. Sharp-Grier and Jennifer L. Martin

2. Workplace Bullying: Concerted Activity as a Viable Solution 9
Jerry Carbo

3. Toward an Understanding of Bullying in the Workplace to Mitigate Deleterious Effects 31
4. The Role of the Victim and the Perpetrator-Victim Relationship in Understanding Workplace Aggression
   Jennifer Bozeman and M. Sandy Hershcovis

PART II: BULLYING ACROSS OCCUPATIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS

5. Prime Targets: Identity Markers as the Secret Rationale for the Preponderance of Bullying in Academe
   Jennifer L. Martin, Martina L. Sharp-Grier, and Kathleen Piker-King

6. Bullying in Health Care: A Hazard for Caregivers and Patients
   Susan Strauss

7. Service with a Smile Meets Customer with a Snarl: Implications for Worker Well-Being
   Lisa A. Marchiondo, Lilia M. Cortina, Harry S. Shannon, Ted Haines, Sybil Geldart, and Lauren Griffith

PART III: BULLYING AND ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE

8. Individual, Interpersonal, and Organizational Outcomes of Workplace Bullying
   Ashley A. Membere, Afra S. Ahmad, Amanda J. Anderson, Alex P. Lindsey, Isaac E. Sabat, and Eden B. King

9. Ally Training
   Kathleen Gargan and Christa Grant

10. How A College/University Campus Can Inform Students, Faculty, and Staff about Bullying: One Student’s Perspective
    Lucas Lavera

11. Workplace Bullying: Campus Public Safety Role and Responsibility
    Ronald Matos