The Politics of Ecosocialism
Transforming welfare

Edited by Kajsa Borgnäs, Teppo Eskelinen, Johanna Perkiö and Rikard Warlenius
Contents

Notes on contributors
xix
Acknowledgements
xi

Editors’ introduction
1

PART I

The scene
13

1. Marxist crisis theory and the global environmental challenge
   Kajsa Borgnäs
   15

2. The sustainability of welfare capitalism: redefining institutions and agency
   David Eklind Kloó
   34

3. Politics in a world of scarcity
   Ville Lähde
   67

PART II

The challenge
67

4. Technology and sustainability in the light of questions of determinism
   Fredrik Sjögren
   69

5. A renewable energy transition: capitalist barriers, socialist enticements
   Rikard Warlenius
   83

6. Possibilities and limits of Green Keynesianism
   Teppo Eskelinen
   101
viii Contents

7 Commons against capitalism 116
TERO TOIVANEN

PART III
Strategy and agency 135

8 Universal basic income: a cornerstone of the new economic order 137
JOHANNA PERKIO

9 Out of the frying pan: people on the move in a warmer world and how to receive them 148
SHORA ESMAILIAN

10 Climate jobs as tipping point: Norwegian grassroots challenging the oil and climate change hegemony 163
ANDREAS YTTERSTAD

11 Socialism or barbecue, war communism or geoengineering: some thoughts on choices in a time of emergency 180
ANDREAS MALM

Afterword 195
JOHN BELLAMY FOSTER

Index 204