

Expert Knowledge in Global Trade

Edited by
Erin Hannah, James Scott and Silke
Trommer

Contents

List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xii
Acknowledgement	xv
Abbreviations	xvi

Introduction	1
ERIN HANNAH, JAMES SCOTT AND SILKE TROMMER

PART I

The language of expert knowledge: The power of discourse, metaphors, and myth making 19

- 1 Talking trade: Common sense knowledge in the multilateral trade regime 21
RORDEN WILKINSON
- 2 The specter of Smoot-Hawley and the global trading system: Sustaining free trade through the crisis 41
GABRIEL SILES-BRÜGGE
- 3 Trade policy communities, expert language, and the dehumanization of world trade 63
SILKE TROMMER

PART II

The substance of expert knowledge: The power of law and econometrics in knowledge production 83

- 4 Expertise through experience: Inequality and legitimacy in the juridification of international trade disputing 85

JOSEPH CONTI

- 5 Numbers: The role of computable general equilibrium modeling in legitimizing trade policy 107

CLIVE GEORGE

- 6 The double movement of law and expertise 124

ANDREW LANG

PART III

The agency of expert knowledge: The power of critical technicians, embedded NGOs, and organic intellectuals 149

- 7 Symbolic power and social critique in the making of Oxfam's trade policy research 151

MATTHEW EAGLETON-PIERCE

- 8 Ratcheting up accountability?: Embedded NGOs in the multilateral trade system 170

ERIN HANNAH

- 9 Southern trade intellectuals in expert knowledge creation 197

JAMES SCOTT

Index 218

Routledge Global Institutions Series 229