Wine and Tourism

A Strategic Segment for Sustainable Economic Development
Contents

1 Level of Implementation of Quality in the Designation of Origin and Monterrei Wine Route (Galicia, Spain) .......................... 1
José Álvarez-García, Marta Peris-Ortiz, and Carlos Rueda-Armengot

2 Quality of Landscape and Sustainability Benefit to Wine Tourism: Contexts and Commitments ........................................... 15
Soazig Darnay

3 Wine Tourism and Regional Development ............................................. 27
Ricardo Correia and Carlos Brito

4 Wine Routes and Territorial Events as Enhancers of Tourism Experiences ................................................................. 41
Magda Antonioli Corigliano

5 Monterrei Wine Tourist Route (Galicia-Spain): Analysis from the Perspective of Offer ....................................................... 57
Maria de la Cruz del Río-Rama, Marta Peris-Ortiz, and José María Merigó-Lindahl

6 The Experience of Wine Tourism in Vale dos Vinhedos—Rio Grande do Sul—Brazil ......................................................... 71
Vander Valduga and Mateus Valduga

7 Hotel Ships on the Douro River and their Relationship with the Terroir ............................................................................. 87
Alexandre Guedes and Veronika Joukes

8 The Wine Routes of Spain Products Club: The Case of the Ribera of Guadiana Wine Route (Spain) ........................................... 107
E. Pérez-Calderón, F.J. Ortega-Rossell, and P. Milanés-Montero
9 Complementarity and Interaction of Tourist Services in an Excellent Wine Tourism Destination: The Douro Valley (Portugal) ........................................................................................................ 123
Eduardo Cordeiro Gongalves and António Valério Maduro

10 Purchasing and Use Behaviour of the Wine Tourist on the Setúbal Peninsula Wine Route .......................................................... 133
Tânia Reigadinha and Mário Cravidão

11 The Wine-Growing Thematic and Cultural Festivities of the Grape and Wine Region, as Well as the Wine-Touristic Cluster’s Development of Serra Gaucha in Rio Grande do Sul (Brazil) .................................................. 147
Edegar Luis Tomazzoni, Mary Sandra Guerra Ashton, and Magnus Luiz Emmendoerfer

12 Wine Tourism and Gastronomy .......................................................... 161
Olivier Etcheverría

13 Gastronomy and Wines in the Alentejo Portuguese Region: Motivation and Satisfaction of Tourists from Évora .................................. 179
Rui Amaral, Margarida Saraiva, Susana Rocha, and Jaime Serra

14 High-Altitude Fine Wines from the Midwest Region of Santa Catarina (Brazil): A Wine Tourism Destination? .................. 193
Losso Flavia Baratieri and Raquel Maria Fontes do Amaral Pereira

15 New World Labels for Old World Tradition .................................. 209
Donna Lee Rosen and Doris Miculan Bradley

16 Wine Tourism Moving Towards Sustainable Viticulture? Challenges, Opportunities and Tools to Internalize Sustainable Principles in the Wine Sector ...................................................... 229
Shana Sabbado Flores and Rosa Maria Vieira Medeiros

17 Google Search Activity as Thermometer of Wine Cellar Visitors .................................................................................. 247
Raúl Gómez-Martínez, Camilo Prado-Román, and Francisco Díez-Martín

Amador Durán-Sánchez, José Álvarez-García, María de la Cruz del Río-Rama, and Encarnación González-Vázquez

Index ........................................................................................................... 275