PAUL MISNER.

CATHOLIC LABOR MOVEMENTS IN EUROPE

SOCIAL THOUGHT AND ACTION, 1914–1965

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA PRESS
WASHINGTON, D.C.
CONTENTS

Abbreviations ix

Introduction 1

1. Preparing the Ground, Sowing the Seed 5
2. World War I and the Condition of Labor 15
3. A White International? 40
4. Social Catholic Analyses before Quadragesimo Anno: 60
   Common Aims, Diverse Paths
5. Vitality in the Low Countries 88
6. France: Controversies and Advances 106
7. New Departures in Catholic Action: Youth 121
   Movements in the Working Class
8. Women’s Catholic Labor Movements 143
9. Christian Labor in Weimar Germany 161
10. Italy and Austria: Christian Labor at Grips with 184
    Authoritarian Rule
11. Quadragesimo Anno, 1931: Its Controversial Reception 212
12. France, Belgium, the Netherlands: Christian Labor 231
    in the Depression Years
13. Labor and Catholicism under the Impact of 255
    World War II
14. Working within Secular Pluralism 281

Conclusion 293

References 297
Index of Names 331
General Index 337