Innovating in a Service-Driven Economy
Insights, Application, and Practice

Richard Cuthbertson
University of Oxford, UK

Peder Inge Furseth
BI Norwegian Business School, Norway

and

Stephen J. Ezell
Information Technology and Innovation Foundation, USA
Contents

List of Figures vii
Preface viii
Acknowledgments ix

Part I Innovating in the Amazon Economy: Proposing a New Model
1 Explaining the Amazon Economy and the Need for a New Model in Innovation 5
2 The New Model of the Innovative Firm 10

Part II Insights: What Is Most Important for Innovation to Succeed?
3 Insights from Service Innovation Thinkers 25
4 Insights from Service Innovation Practitioners 41

Part III Application: Creating Value in the Components of Service Innovation: Statements, Methodology, and Checklist
5 Innovation Capacity 75
6 Innovation Ability 85
7 Innovation Commercialization and Value Formation 96
8 An Innovation Audit: The SIT Checklist 103

Part IV Practice: Analyzing Cases with the Service Innovation Triangle
9 Apple and Nokia: The Transformation from Products to Services 111
10 Amazon and Borders: From Sector Focus to Competence Focus 130
Contents

11 Facebook and MySpace: The Importance of Social Networks 145
12 Tesco and Sainsbury's: The Need to Turn Ideas into Action 159
13 Kodak and Xerox: How High Risk Aversion Kills Companies 166

Part V Summary and Conclusion: The Use and Value of This Book

14 SIT Methodology 183

Notes 193
Index 210