International Summit on the Teaching Profession

Schools for 21st-Century Learners

STRONG LEADERS, CONFIDENT TEACHERS, INNOVATIVE APPROACHES

Andreas Schleicher

OECD
BETTER POLICIES FOR BETTER LIVES
Table of Contents

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY ........................................................................................................... 9

CHAPTER 1 BUILDING RESPONSIVE SCHOOLS FOR 21ST-CENTURY LEARNERS ........................................... 11

CHAPTER 2 PROMOTING EFFECTIVE SCHOOL LEADERSHIP ......................................................... 15
- What school principals do ........................................................................................................... 17
- Sharing responsibilities .................................................................................................................. 19
  Distributed leadership .................................................................................................................... 20
- Defining school goals, programmes and professional development plans ..................................... 22
- Providing direction to the school and supporting teachers: Instructional leadership ......................... 22
  Instructional leadership and school climate ................................................................................... 23
- Principals' work experience .......................................................................................................... 24
- Professional development for principals ..................................................................................... 25
- Principals' job satisfaction ............................................................................................................ 27
- Who are today's school leaders? .................................................................................................... 29
  Age and gender of principals ........................................................................................................ 29
  Formal education of school principals ......................................................................................... 30
- Policy implications ....................................................................................................................... 34
  Empower teachers to play a role in decision making at the school level ......................................... 34
  Encourage the practice of distributed leadership ......................................................................... 34
  Develop formal programmes to prepare school leaders to enter the profession ............................. 35
  Provide opportunities for, and remove barriers to, continuing professional development for principals .......................................................................................................................... 35
  Ensure that principals receive training in, and have opportunities to assume, instructional leadership ......................................................................................................................................... 35

CHAPTER 3 STRENGTHENING TEACHERS' CONFIDENCE IN THEIR OWN ABILITIES ........................................ 39
- Why self-efficacy matters ............................................................................................................. 41
- Teachers' self-efficacy and job satisfaction as related to classroom environment ............................ 46
- Teachers' self-efficacy and their relations with colleagues and students ....................................... 47
  How teachers' relationships with colleagues and students can moderate the influence of classroom composition ......................................................................................................................................... 48
- Teachers' self-efficacy and their professional development ............................................................ 49
- Teachers' self-efficacy and the appraisal and feedback they receive ............................................. 50
- Teachers' self-efficacy and their beliefs and practices .................................................................... 51
  How teachers' beliefs and practices mediate the impact of classroom composition on their sense of self-efficacy and job satisfaction ................................................................................................. 52
- Teachers' self-efficacy and their professional collaborative practices ........................................... 53
- Policy implications ....................................................................................................................... 55
  Build teachers' capacity to handle misbehaving students ............................................................... 55
  Support the development of interpersonal relationships within the school .................................... 56
  Institute meaningful systems of appraisal and feedback that have connections with teachers' practice ............................................................................................................................................... 56
  Encourage collaboration among teachers, either through professional development activities or classroom practices .......................................................................................................................... 56
CHAPTER 4 INNOVATING TO CREATE 21ST-CENTURY LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

- Regrouping educators and teachers ........................................ 62
  Collaborative planning, orchestration and professional development ......................................................... 63
  Regrouping teachers to introduce different mixes of learning and pedagogy .................................................. 63
  Team teaching to target specific groups of learners ......................................................................................... 64
  Enhanced visibility .................................................................................. 64

- Regrouping learners ........................................................................ 64
  Grouping together learners of different ages ................................................................................................. 64
  Smaller groups within the larger groups ........................................................................................................ 65

- Rescheduling learning: Innovating with how time is used ............................................................................. 66
  Timetables, flexibility and time use .............................................................................................................. 66
  Organised learning outside regular school hours .......................................................................................... 67

- Widening pedagogical repertoires .................................................. 68
  Inquiry learning .................................................................................. 68
  Authentic learning ............................................................................. 69
  The pedagogical possibilities in “technology-rich” environments ................................................................. 70
  Mixes of pedagogies ......................................................................... 71

- Policy implications ........................................................................... 72
  Create communities and build capacities .................................................................................................. 73
  Collaborate and communicate .......................................................... 73
  Create conditions conducive to innovation .................................................................................................. 74
  Ensure coherence ................................................................................ 74

This book has...

StatLinks

A service that delivers Excel® files from the printed page!

Look for the StatLinks at the bottom left-hand corner of the tables or graphs in this book.
To download the matching Excel® spreadsheet, just type the link into your Internet browser, starting with the http://dx.doi.org prefix.
If you're reading the PDF e-book edition, and your PC is connected to the Internet, simply click on the link. You'll find StatLinks appearing in more OECD books.