Uncertain Lives

Changing Borders and Mobility in the Borderlands of the Upper Mekong

Editors

Wasan Panyagaew and Bai Zhihong
Contents

Preface 1

Editors' Notes 3

Introduction by Nicholas Tapp 5

1 Living in Fear of Violence at the Thai-Burma Border 15
   Paiboon Hengsuwan

2 The Ethnic Identities of Han Settlers along the China-Myanmar Border during the Twentieth Century 37
   Bai Zhihong

3 Trans-border Trade, Changing Gender Roles and Empowerment: Tai Traders along the Yunnan-Burma Border 63
   Aranya Siriphon

4 Memory, Status and Identity: A Psychological Investigation of People Living in the Neighboring Border Areas of Vietnam and Yunnan Province in China 79
   Gu Jiaron

5 Traditional Inertia and a Reality Choice: A Study of Vietnamese Zhuang Wives' Quasi-Affinity in the Yunnan-Vietnamese Border Area 89
   Wang Yueping

6 Transnational Ethnic Flows and National Identity Construction: The Case of a Miao/Hmong Village 109
   Zheng Yu and Zeng Jing

7 An Intrusion into the Transnational Kitchen: The Foodways of Shan Labor Migrants in Urban Chiang Mai, Thailand 125
   Busarin Lertchavalitsakul
8 Reserving Ideality Home: Going Down to Burma for the Heshunnese Family Prior to the 1950s
He Lin

9 Re-Emplacing Homeland: Mobility, Locality, a Returned Exile and a Thai Restaurant in Southwest China
Wasan Panyagaew

10 Tai Lue Traditions in a Transnational World: A Study of Tai Lue Communities in the United States of America
Nanshan Kang

Contributors

Index