Systemic Entrepreneurship: Contemporary Issues and Case Studies

Edited by

Gideon Maas
Plymouth University, UK

and

Paul Jones
Plymouth University, UK
Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables viii
Preface ix
Acknowledgements xi
Notes on Contributors xii
List of Abbreviations xvi

1 An Overview of Systemic Entrepreneurship 1
   1 What is different? 2
   2 Systemic entrepreneurship 3
   3 Role of innovation in systemic entrepreneurship 5
   4 Article 6
      Article 1: building better business schools for a changing world 6
   5 Conclusions 17

2 An Overview of Entrepreneurship Education 22
   1 An introduction 23
   2 Measuring impact 24
   3 The enterprising university 24
   4 Articles 27
      Article 1: a proposed model to measure the influence of students' perceived happiness on their entrepreneurial intention 27
Article 2: measuring the impact of enterprise education on development: a model of systemic entrepreneurial intent 42
Article 3: educational transformation and the role of the entrepreneurial university in Africa 49
Article 4: humanitarian engineering: a route to systemic entrepreneurship application across Africa 62
5 Conclusions 76

3 Entrepreneurship Support 96
1 Introduction 97
2 Article 97
Article 1: an evaluation of the extra-curricular support available to student entrepreneurs at Plymouth University 97
3 Conclusions 110

4 Quo Vadis? 115
1 Introduction 116
2 Conclusions from academia 116
3 Conclusions from industry 117
4 Example of an entrepreneurial eco-system within HEIs 118
5 Recommendations for the way forward 123
Regionally relevant narratives 123
Entrepreneurial eco-system 123
Policy formulation 124
Innovation 125
Institution-specific activities 125
6 Conclusions 126

Index 128