Forging Capitalism in Nehru’s India

Neocolonialism and the State, c. 1940–1970

NASIR TYABJI

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
CONTENTS

Preface ix

Introduction xiii

1. Capital Accumulation under Colonial Economy and Company Law 1

2. Inculcating Corporate Responsibility: The Bombay Plan as Social Engineering 28

3. Liaquat Ali Khan's 1947 Budget and the Corporate Response 54

4. Administrative Attempts to Channel Accumulations: The Income Tax Investigation Commission 80

5. Sholapur Mills and the Initiation of Social Engineering 97

7. Denouement: The Final Abolition of Managing Agencies 147

Bibliography 153

Index 165

About the Author 173