Contents

List of figures vii
List of tables viii
Editorial review board ix
List of contributors xi
Foreword xiii
Birgitte Egelund Olsen xv
Preface xvi
List of abbreviations xvi

PART I CASE STUDIES IN POLICY INTEGRATION

1. Climate policy integration: evidence on coherence in EU policies
   Claudia Kettner, Daniela Kletzan-Slamanig and Angela Köppl 3

2. Tax treatment of the interaction between water and energy
   Marta Villar Ez curra and Enrique Fonseca Capdevila 18

3. Subsidies to fossil energy consumption in Italy: assessment and interaction with the electricity market
   Marianna Antenucci and Michele Governatori 33

4. Towards a sustainable climate and energy policy mix: insights from theory and the case of Japan
   Sven Rudolph, Takeshi Kawakatsu and Achim Lerch 49

5. European renewable energy market governance and economic crisis: a taxation makeover with Greece as a case study
   Ioanna Mersinia 66

PART II THE CHALLENGES OF SUBSIDIES

6. Reforming fossil fuel subsidies: will it make a difference?
   Malgorzata Kicia and Manfred Rosenstock 83
7. Tax expenditures to promote environmentally responsible investment
Maria Amparo Grau Ruiz

8. Do you get what you pay for with United States climate change tax provisions?
Hans Sprohge and Larry Kreiser

9. Supporting emission reductions through a viable wind energy industry: lessons for Australia
Karen Bubna-Litic

PART III COMPETITIVENESS CONSIDERATIONS

10. Environmental border tax adjustments (BTAs): a forgotten history
Alice Pirlot

11. Renewable energy: subsidies and taxes as competition distortion
Rolf H. Weber

12. The impact of environmental tax on enterprise competitiveness in China
Jian Wu, Yujiao Mao and Xingjie Guo

PART IV STRATEGIC CONSIDERATIONS

13. Reclaiming the 'T' word: ways of improving communication and public acceptance of environmental fiscal reform in Europe
Jacqueline Cottrell

14. Regulatory taxes as an instrument to foster sustainability transitions: an exploratory analysis
Kris Bachus and Frederic Vanswijghenoven

15. Resilience based policy for groundwater protection
Deborah L. Jarvie

Index