INTRODUCTION AND READING GUIDE

5 Cultural Entrepreneurship as an Academic Discipline and Professional Practice Embracing New Theories, exploring New Pedagogies and Fostering New Skills
Olaf Kuhike, Annick Schramme, Rene Kooyman

I A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

22 Legitimization Strategies across the Various Guises of Entrepreneurship Implications for Cultural Entrepreneurship Educators
Dennis Cheek

32 ReOrient A Paradigm Shift of Teaching in Arts Management and Cultural Policy in Taiwan
Jerry Liu

45 Cultural Entrepreneurship Teaching & Learning Models in Central Europe
Marcin Poprawski

II THEORY

56 Exploring Entrepreneurial Actions of Creative Entrepreneurs and its Consequences for Entrepreneurship Education
Walter van Andel, Annick Schramme

69 Entrepreneurship Education for Social Innovation
An Approach Based in Design Thinking and the Humanities
Aparna Katre

80 Adapting the Promethean Fire of Business for Arts and Cultural Entrepreneurship
Margaret Jane Wysomirski, Shoshannah Goldberg-Miller

90 Poetics as a Dynamic Concept in Creative and Cultural Enterprise
Manuel Montoya

99 Examining and Reconciling Identity Issues among Artist-Entrepreneurs
Erin Bass, Ivana Milosevic, Dale Eesley

110 The entrepreneurial ant Re-thinking Art Management Education
Rene Kooyman, Ruben Jacobs
III PEDAGOGY

122 Graduate Music Industry Education A Holistic Approach to Program Creation
Richard Strasser

133 From Art Manager to Social Entrepreneur
Redesigning Academic Programs in a Time of Challenges and Opportunities.
Irene Popoli

141 The Impact of Blended Learning on Students’ Skills and Competencies
The University of Applied Sciences Baltazar, Croatia
Majda Tafra, Ana Skledar, Ines Jemrić

151 Companions, not general managers What makes Arts Management Graduate Studies Successful?
Bruno Verbergt, Laila De Bruyne

164 Developing a Business Model The Perception of Entrepreneurial Self-efficacy among Students in the Cultural and Creative Industry
Valérie Ballereau, Christine Sinapi, Olivier Toutain, Edwin Júno-Delgado

178 What we talk about, when we talk about Entrepreneurship
Insights into Students’ and Lecturers’ Thoughts on Learning and Teaching Creative/Cultural Entrepreneurship.
Melanie Levick-Parkin

189 Developing Creative Education in South Africa
A Case of Western Cape Province
Oluwayemisi Adebola Oyekunle

204 Transition Courses in the Arts Management Curriculum
Creating a Professional Development Series
Brea Heidelberg

IV CASES

214 Cultural and Creative Entrepreneurship Education
By Design A Case Study of the Development and Launch of Canada’s First BA Program in Creative Industries
Ira Levine, Jeremy Shtern

224 Teaching and Learning Cultural Entrepreneurship
Humanities in Business
Paola Dubini

232 A new Approach to teach and learn Cultural Entrepreneurship
The CEE Master at Erasmus University Rotterdam
Marilena Vecco

242 Teaching Cultural Entrepreneurship in an Engaging, Strategic and Useful Way Notes from the Field
Jeannette Guillemin, Wendy Swart Grossman

253 Experiences with a Practice-oriented Minor at ArtEZ Institute of the Arts
† Dany Jacobs, Tamara Rookus

260 Dare to try! Waking the Entrepreneurs in Heritage Conservators
Paul Zalewski, Izabella Parowicz

271 Challenges of Transdisciplinary Curricula
Ana Maria de Mattos Guimarães, Cristiane Schnack
V PRACTICE

282 Disrupting Disciplines Meeting the Challenge of the Industry-ready Agenda for the Freelance Creative Practitioner
Robert Davis, Julia Calver, Steven Parker

292 Rising to the King’s Cultural Challenge Teaching and Learning Cultural Entrepreneurship through a Project-based Competition
Rosa Perez Monclus, Roberta Comunian and Nick Wilson

302 New Teaching and learning Approaches to Cultural Entrepreneurship for Heritage Conservation Training Programs in Brazil
Karla Penna, Jorge Tinoco, Elisabeth Taylor

312 Applying lean start-up Methodology to Cultural Entrepreneurship
Stephen Preece

322 Professional Short-term Training for Cultural Entrepreneurs in Valdivia, Chile Innovuss Program
Guillermo OlivaRen Concha

331 PEST-control Training Environment Observation and Assessment of Artists-to-be in Lithuania
Elonahas Labyte

341 Product Development Training as a Tool for Empowerment in Crafts A Focus on Training Initiatives in Pottery Factories in the North West Province
Isaac Bongani Mahlangu

EXPANDING THE GLOBAL VISION

354 Shaping Strategies and Building Creative Capacities The Perspective of the United Nations
Santos-Duisenberg Edna