

Matthias Klumpp, Stephan Zelewski, Naciye Akca (Eds.)

International Perspectives on University Efficiency

Logos Verlag Berlin

Content

Preface	V
Section 1 Diversity in Higher Education Systems	1
Is German higher education non-discriminatory?	3
Gender Diversity in the German Higher Education System	23
Discipline-Specific Teaching Efficiency	37
Section 2 Management and Efficiency in Higher Education Systems: An International Comparison	53
Effects of a Multi-Campus Organization on Institutional Efficiency	55
Economies of scale in higher education	67
Higher Education Study Program and Degree Management.....	87
Section 3 Efficiency and Finance in Higher Education Systems	103
Analyzing the Efficiency of Funding and Spending Strategies in Higher Education	105
Do financial resources hinder or support efficiency in the long run?.....	113
A comparative study of budget allocation within European universities.....	131
Section 4 Ranking, Reputation and Performance in Higher Education.....	149
Ranking Evaluation for Dutch and German Universities.....	151
Is it possible that Higher Education Institutes are able to buy reputation?.....	169
Section 5 Efficiency and Quality in Higher Education Systems	201
European Patent Registrations-Measuring Research Efficiency in Higher Education	203
The International Disparity of Defining Quality in Higher Education Institutions	215