Contents

List of Contributors vii

1. Introduction 1
   Gary Cook

PART I
INTERNATIONALISATION

2. Managerial Mindset and the Born Global Firm 11
   Paula Danskin Englis and Ingrid Wakkee

3. Acquisition of Knowledge in Networking for Internationalisation 29
   Valerie A. Bell and Sarah Y. Cooper

PART II
START-UP AND COMMERCIALISATION

4. Barriers to Biomedical Engineering Commercialisation 57
   Charlotte Norrman, Christina Öberg and Peter Hult

5. Bringing Technology Projects to Market: Balancing of Efficiency and Collaboration 73
   Mozhdeh Taheri and Marina van Geenhuizen

6. High-Tech Entrepreneurial ‘Soft Starters’ in a University-Based Business Incubator: Space for Entrepreneurial Capital Formation and Emerging Business Models 97
   Fumi Kitagawa and Susan Robertson
PART III
CLUSTERS AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

7. The Dynamics of Industrial Clustering in the German Enterprise Software Sector
   Joachim Viehoever

8. Cluster Initiatives within the European Context: Stimulating Policies for Regional Development Dreams
   Inessa Laur

PART IV
HIGHER EDUCATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

9. Assessing the Effect of Different Dimensions of Top Management Team Diversity on the Growth of University-Based Spin-Off Firms
   Francesca Visintin and Daniel Pittino

10. University—Business Co-operation in Indonesian Higher Education for Innovation
    Firmansyah David and Peter van der Sijde

PART V
STRATEGY AND GROWTH

11. The Impact of the Financial Crisis on the Financing and Growth of Technology-Based Small Firms: Some Survey Evidence from the United Kingdom
    Robert Baldock, David North and Farid Ullah

12. Network Openness and Learning Ambidexterity of New Technology-Based Firms at Incubators
    Danny Soetanto

    Pia Ulvenblad

14. Social Media Espionage — A Strategic Grid
    Joni Salminen and William Y. Degbey