The Public Financiers

Ricardo, George, Clark, Ramsey, Mirrlees, Vickrey, Wicksell, Musgrave, Buchanan, Tiebout, and Stiglitz

Colin Read
Professor of Economics and Finance, SUNY College at Plattsburgh, USA
Contents

List of Figures
Series Preface
Preface to This Volume

Introduction

Section 1  First Forays into Tax Incidence and Public Policy

1. The Early Life of David Ricardo
2. The Times
3. The Theory
4. The Later Life of David Ricardo
5. The Early Life of Henry George
6. The Times
7. The Theory of Progress and Poverty
8. Legacy and Later Life
9. John Bates Clark in Defense of the Status Quo
10. John Bates Clark and His Times
11. Later Life and Legacy of Henry George
12. Later Life and Legacy of John Bates Clark

Section 2  From Burden of Taxation to Optimal Taxation

13. The Early Years of Frank Plumpton Ramsey
14. The Paper That Spawned the Study of Optimal Taxation
15. A Short Lifetime of Contributions
Contents

16 The Premature Loss of a Great Mind 96
17 A Modern Extension – Vickrey and Mirrlees 98
18 The Early Life of William Spencer Vickrey 99
19 The Early Life of James Mirrlees 104
20 The Great Idea 113
21 Legacy and Applications 121
22 The Nobel Prize 127
23 The Later Years of James Alexander Mirrlees 129
24 The Later Years of William Spencer Vickrey 132

Section 3 Divergent Arguments for the Public Sector

25 The Early Life of Knut Wicksell 137
26 The Early Life of Richard Musgrave 144
27 The Early Life of James Buchanan 150
28 The Great Idea of Knut Wicksell 164
29 The Times and a New Role for Government 169
30 The Great Debate Between Musgrave and Buchanan 174
31 The Nobel Memorial Prize for James Buchanan 180
32 The Legacy of Knut Wicksell 182
33 The Later Years of Richard Musgrave 185
34 The Legacy and Later Years of James Buchanan 187

Section 4 Bringing it all Together – Voting with the Feet and the Henry George Theorem

35 The Early Life of Charles Tiebout 191
36 The Early Life of Joseph Stiglitz 200
37 The Times of Charles Mills Tiebout 206
38 The Great Idea of Charles Mills Tiebout 208
39 Applications and Extensions 212