BRICS
An Anti-Capitalist Critique

edited by
Patrick Bond and Ana Garcia
Contents

List of contributors vii
List of abbreviations xiii

1. Introduction
   Ana Garcia and Patrick Bond 1

Part 1: Sub-imperial, inter-imperial or capitalist-imperial?

2. BRICS and the sub-imperial location
   Patrick Bond 15

3. Sub-imperialism, the highest stage of dependent capitalism
   Mathias Luce 27

4. BRICS, capitalist-imperialism and new contradictions
   Virginia Fontes 45

5. BRICS, the G20 and the American Empire
   Leo Panitch 61

6. Capitalist mutations in emerging, intermediate and peripheral neoliberalism
   Claudio Katz 70

Part 2: BRICS ‘develop’ Africa, Latin America and Eastern Europe

7. BRICS corporate snapshots during African extractivism
   Baruti Amisi, Patrick Bond, Richard Kamidza, Farai Maguvu and Bobby Peek 97

8. The story of the hunter or the hunted? Brazil’s role in Angola and Mozambique
   Ana Garcia and Karina Kato 117
9. China’s geopolitical oil strategy in the Andean region
   Omar Bonilla Martinez

10. The transnationalisation of Brazilian construction companies
    Pedro Henrique Campos

11. Behind the image of South–South solidarity at Brazil’s Vale
    Judith Marshall

12. Rio’s ruinous mega-events
    Einar Braathen, Gilmar Mascarenhas and Celina Sørbøe

13. Modern Russia as semi-peripheral, dependent capitalism
    Ruslan Dzarasov

14. Russia’s neoliberal imperialism and the Eurasian challenge
    Gonzalo Pozo

Part 3: BRICS within global capitalism

15. BRICS and transnational capitalism
    William Robinson

16. BRICS at the brink of the fossil bonanza
    Elmar Altvater

17. Scramble, resistance and a new non-alignment strategy
    Sam Moyo and Paris Yeros

18. The BRICS’ dangerous endorsement of ‘financial inclusion’
    Susanne Soederberg

19. China and the lingering Pax Americana
    Ho-fung Hung

20. The future trajectory of BRICS
    Achin Vanaik

21. Does the South have a possible history?
    Vijay Prashad

22. Whose interests are served by the BRICS?
    Immanuel Wallerstein

23. BRICS after the Durban and Fortaleza summits
    Niall Reddy

24. Building BRICS from below?
    Ana Garcia

25. Co-dependent BRICS from above, co-opted BRICS from the middle, and confrontational BRICS from below
    Patrick Bond

Index