

Sebastian Văduva

Between Globalization and Integration

The Europeanization of Romania

 Springer

UNIVERSITATEA
EMANUEL DIN GRĂDINA

Contents

1 The Twenty-First Century and the Expectations Placed upon Public Administration	1
1.1 Introduction.....	1
1.2 Globalization, Transformation and the “Flat World”.....	3
1.3 Globalization and its Impact on Public Administration.....	6
1.4 Globalization and its Mandates on Public Administration	9
1.5 The Necessary Capabilities for Strategic Public Administration.....	12
1.6 Coalition Building, a Substantial Element of Modern Public Administration	17
1.7 Tactical Implementation Capacities	18
1.8 Governance in the Globalization Era: A Synopsis.....	21
References.....	24
2 The European Union: Amid Globalization and Integration.....	29
2.1 Neofunctionalism and Intergovernmentalism.....	31
2.2 Economical Interests and the European Project.....	33
2.3 The Pursuit of Identity and Integration	36
2.3.1 Multi-Level Governance	36
2.3.2 The Integration Impetus	37
2.4 National Identity or Economic Prosperity?.....	40
2.5 The Influencers of European Integration	45
2.6 The Features of European Public Administration.....	48
2.6.1 An External, Legal Perspective.....	49
2.6.2 An Internal, Administrative Perspective	51
2.7 Accountability Within European Administrative Space	55
2.7.1 Instruments of Accountability.....	57
References.....	60

3 The Europeanization of Romania in the Globalization
Context	67
3.1 The Historical and Cultural Contexts of Romanian Public Administration	68
3.2 Romania Prior to the European Integration	71
3.2.1 The Political and Legal Conditions of the Early 1990s	71
3.2.2 The Challenges of the Europeanization Process	76
3.3 Europeanization Principles in Romania.....	78
3.4 Europeanization Instruments in Romania.....	83
3.5 Europeanization Effects in Romania.....	86
3.6 Synthetic Aspects of Europeanization in Romania.....	90
References.....	95
Cases	101
Further Reading	103