Dealing with Economic Failure

Between Norm and Practice (15th to 21st Century)
Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................. 7

Introduction ....................................................................................................... 9

Mechthild Isenmann
Before Bankruptcy: Conflict Solution Strategies of Upper German
Trading Companies in the Fifteenth and 'Long' Sixteenth Centuries .......... 27

Wolfgang Forster
Failed Memoria: Rights of Patronage and of Burial in Bankruptcy ............ 53

D. De ruyscher
The Struggle for Voluntary Bankruptcy and Debt Adjustment in Antwerp (c. 1520–c. 1550) ............................................. 77

Klas Nyberg & Håkan Jakobsson
Negotiations, credit and trust in Northern Europe: institutional efficiency in the handling of bankruptcies in late eighteenth-century Stockholm ...... 97

Magnus Ressel
Norms and Practice of Handling Complex and International Insolvencies in Early Modern Venice .............................................................. 115

Viera Rebolledo-Dhuin
Below and Beyond Bankruptcy: Credit in the Parisian Book
Trade in the Nineteenth Century ................................................................. 139

Erika Vause
The Ties that Bind?: An Analysis of the Debt Imprisonment
Records in Lyon 1835–1840 ........................................................................ 175

Jasper Kunstreich
Bankruptcy Laws as Standortpolitik – The Case of Hamburg 1850 to 1870 ................................................................................. 193
Ulrich Falk & Christoph Kling
The Regulatory Concept of Compulsory Composition in the German Bankruptcy Act ......................................................... 215

Peter von Wilmowsky
Insolvency Law: Its Roles and Principles ......................................... 243

Contributors .................................................................................... 261

Register ............................................................................................. 265