A History of the Levant Company

ALFRED C. WOOD
CONTENTS

BIBLIOGRAPHY ................................................................. ix

I. The Foundation of the Levant Company ................................ 1

II. The Early Years, 1583–1605 .............................................. 15

III. Prosperity and Adversity .................................................. 42

IV. The Factories in the Levant ............................................... 59

V. The Embassy and its Occupants, 1583–1660 ............................ 80

VI. The Central Period of the Company’s History, 1660–1718 ............. 95

VII. The Central Period of the Company’s History, 1660–1718 (continued) .... 114

VIII. Decline ............................................................................ 136

IX. Decline (continued) ............................................................ 156

X. The End .............................................................................. 179

XI. The Organization of the Company ......................................... 205

XII. Life in the Levant Factories ............................................... 229

APPENDIXES

I. The Ambassadors at Constantinople, 1583–1824 ....................... 250

II. Consuls of the Levant Company at Smyrna and Aleppo .............. 253

III. British shipping cleared outwards and inwards—Turkey and the Levant, 1800–30 .... 254

IV. The Governors of the Company .......................................... 255