Migration in the Mediterranean
Socio-economic perspectives

Edited by Elena Ambrosetti, Donatella Strangio and Catherine Wihtol de Wenden

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK
Contents

List of figures x
List of tables xii
Foreword xv
About the contributors xvii
Introduction xxiii

ELENA AMBROSETTI AND DONATELLA STRANGIO

PART 1
Labour migration movements in the Mediterranean: past and present 1

1 Migration in the Mediterranean across disciplines 3
ELENA AMBROSETTI AND DONATELLA STRANGIO

2 A provincial level analysis of Italian emigration to Africa in mass migration years: who left and why 15
FRANCESCA FAURI

3 The South-European model of immigration: cross-national differences by sending area in labour-market outcomes and the crisis 32
IVANA FELLINI AND GIOVANNA FULLIN

4 The labour market insertion of immigrants into Italy, Spain and the United Kingdom: similarities and differences and the Southern European model of migration 57
ANNA DI BARTOLOMEO, GIUSEPPE GABRIELLI AND SALVATORE STROZZA
PART 2
The unintended effect of the EU’s external borders securitization

5 Illegal immigration beyond stereotypes: processes of selection, tolerance, regularization of irregular immigrants
MAURIZIO AMBROSINI

6 The securitization of the EU external borders and the rise of human smuggling along the Eastern Mediterranean route: the case of Afghan unaccompanied minors
ENZA ROBERTA PETRILLO

7 Gender and borders in a comparative perspective: sub-Saharan migrant women facing Fortress Europe: the cases of Italy, Greece and Turkey
GIOVANNA CAMPANI AND ZORAN LAPOV

8 The European convergence towards civic integration
ANGELA PAPARUSSO

PART 3
Mobility, migration and transnationalism in the Mediterranean region

9 The forms and determinants of public transnationalism: a North African comparison
THOMAS LACROIX AND GUILLAUME LE ROUX

10 Inventing an Egyptian transnational nation: homeland politics in the Arab Spring uprisings between migration processes, diasporic policies and political opportunity structures
LEA MÜLLER-FUNK

11 From a mythical country of origin to a multi-diaspora country: the case of Israel and the Moroccan Jewish diaspora
EMANUELA TREVISAN SEMI
Beyond musallas and the veil: the second generations’ religiosity: being Muslim and active citizens

ROBERTA RICUCCI

Conclusion

CATHERINE WIHTOL DE WENDEN

Index