STRATEGY, STRUCTURE AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Expressing inter-firm networks and group-affiliated companies

Nabyla Daidj
List of figures vii
List of tables viii
List of exhibits xi

Introduction 1

1 Corporate governance in the Japanese keiretsu system: a dynamic process 6
The historical and economic development of the Japanese industry and its keiretsu 7
From keiretsu affiliation to corporate governance issues 11
The evolution of corporate governance and ownership networks: the Nissan case study 17

2 The Korean system: overview and evolution of closely intertwined industrial groupings (chaebols) 23
The historical development of chaebols 24
The complex changing dynamics of chaebols 29
Structural changes and the evolution of corporate governance concerns 34

3 Conglomerates in the US: return of the giants? 42
The emergence and the development of US conglomerates: a historical perspective 43
The evolution of corporate governance: towards the maximization of shareholder value 49
General Electric corporate governance 54
4 The French landscape: the evolution of large groups’ strategies and governance
The evolution of the French capitalist system 61
The evolution of large groups in France 65
The evolution of corporate governance rules 73

5 Business groups in emerging economies
The increasing integration of China and India into the global economy 85
Reforms and structural changes 88
Business groups in China and India 97

6 Grupos in Mexico: organizational structure and corporate governance
Main trends of the Mexican economy 106
The development and the evolution of Mexican grupos 114
Towards better practices thanks to regulatory reforms? 119

7 Clusters and evolution of corporate governance
Clusters and beyond 125
The issues raised by the concept of cluster 129
What governance for clusters? 130

8 Trends and patterns in corporate governance of “new” inter-firm networks: the case of business ecosystems
The emergence of business ecosystems in the 2000s 139
Business ecosystems and governance 146
The mobile ecosystem case study 149

9 Evolution of corporate governance of large media conglomerates: Comcast, NewsCorp, Time Warner, Viacom, Vivendi, Walt Disney
The competitive position of different organizations 152
The evolution of corporate governance practices 157

10 Amazon, Apple and Google: towards the development of very large diversified groups or conglomerates?
The evolution of the concept of convergence 167
Towards the development of more diversified strategies and new conglomerates? 173
The evolution of strategic alignment and organizational planning, and the impact on corporate governance 177

Bibliography 189
Index 222