Contents

Appendix of Sources ix
Legends in Consumer Behavior xv
Legends in Consumer Behavior: Jacob Jacoby xix
Volume Introduction: The Fourth P—Advertising and Personal Selling xxix
by Wayne D. Hoyer
Commentary on the Contents of This Volume xxv

Advertising Effects

1. The Zeigarnik Effect in Advertising (with James T. Heimbach) 3
2. Recall of Crazy, Mixed-Up TV Commercials (with Stephen W. Hollander) 14
3. Effects of Different Levels of Integration on Advertising Preference and Intention to Purchase (with George J. Szybillo) 19
4. Effects of Integrated Advertising on Perceived Corporate Hiring Policy (with George J. Szybillo and Jacqueline Busato) 29

The Comprehension-Miscomprehension of Advertising and Other Mass Media Communications

5. Viewer Miscomprehension of Televised Communication: A Brief Report of Findings (with Wayne D. Hoyer and David A. Sheluga) 37
6. Viewer Miscomprehension of Televised Communication: Selected Findings (with Wayne D. Hoyer) 47
7. On Miscomprehending Televised Communication: A Rejoinder (with Wayne D. Hoyer) 74
8. To Read, View, or Listen? A Cross-Media Comparison of Comprehension (with Wayne D. Hoyer and Mary R. Zimmer) 88
9. Sources of Miscomprehension in Television Advertising (with Wayne D. Hoyer and Rajendra K. Srivastava) 103
10. Miscomprehension of Public Affairs Programming (with Wayne D. Hoyer) 120
11. Viewer Miscomprehension of the 1980 Presidential Debate: A Research Note (with Tracy R. Troutman and Tommy E. Whittler) 127
12A. The Comprehension/Miscomprehension of Print Communications: Conceptual Foundations (with Wayne D. Hoyer) 140
12B. The Comprehension/Miscomprehension of Print Communications: Methodology (with Wayne D. Hoyer) 179
13. The Comprehension/Miscomprehension of Print Communication: Selected Findings (with Wayne D. Hoyer) 218

Misleading, Deceptive, Remedial and Corrective Advertising

14. The FDA Approach to Defining Misleading Advertising (with Constance Small) 239
15. Reply to a Comment on “Defining Misleading Advertising” and “Deception in Advertising” 245
16. Correcting Corrective Advertising (with Margaret C. Nelson and Wayne D. Hoyer) 247
17. Reply to Mizerski’s Criticisms to ‘4As Pioneering Study of TV Miscomprehension’ (with Wayne D. Hoyer) 254
18. Corrective Advertising and Affirmative Disclosure Statements: Their Potential for Confusing and Misleading the Consumer (with Margaret C. Nelson and Wayne D. Hoyer) 261

Personal Selling

22. You’re Twenty Years behind Your Market (with Francine Jacoby) 333
23. The Psychology of Persuasion (with Francine Jacoby) 338
24. The Application of Assertiveness Training to the Consumer-Salesperson Interaction (with Ronald J. Kulich, James P. Curran, and Marco J. Mariotto) 350
25. Some Social Psychological Perspectives on Closing 357

Perspectives of Other Scholars

26. “Always Fly First Class” and Other Lessons Jack Taught Me by Michael R. Solomon 375

Wayne D. Hoyer Interviews Jacob Jacoby

28. Interview of Jacob Jacoby by Wayne D. Hoyer 389

About the Editors and Contributors

401