Handbook of Contemporary Research on Emerging Markets

Edited by

Hemant Merchant
Professor of Global Business, University of South Florida
St. Petersburg, USA
Contents

List of contributors vii
Preface xviii

PART I EXTENDING THEORETICAL AND CONCEPTUAL THINKING ABOUT EMERGING MARKETS

1 How do emerging markets differ from developed markets? A conceptual and empirical analysis 3
Olga E. Annushkina, Hemant Merchant, Renata Trinca Colonel and Elena Berselli

2 Heterogeneous economic space in a global archipelago: an economic-geography perspective of emerging markets 38
Claes G. Alvstam, Patrik Ström and Robert Wentrup

3 Institutional theory and institution building in emerging economies 62
Len J. Treviño

4 Emerging market multinationals and theory development: a multi-theoretical approach 88
Alvaro Cuervo-Cazurra

5 Learning from sustainability initiatives in emerging markets 117
Karin Braunsberger and Richard O. Flamm

PART II OPERATIONAL PRACTICES IN EMERGING MARKETS AND THEIR IMPLICATIONS

6 Mapping institutional influences on multinational firms' R&D investments in emerging markets: the case of India 139
Krishnan Nair, Jaideep Prabhu and Hemant Merchant

7 Brand management practices in an emerging country market 153
Ekrem Tatoglu, Mehmet Demirbag and Daragh O'Reilly
Handbook of contemporary research on emerging markets

8 Employability of older workers in a changing labor market: the case of a post-Soviet country
Rūta Kazlauskaitė, Irena Pupienienė and Ilona Bučiūnienė

9 Establishment mode strategy of multinational enterprises in the emerging economies: influences of and the moderating interrelationship between cultural distance and economic freedom
Ahmad Arslan and Jorma Larimo

10 Drivers and strategies of international service firms in emerging markets
Michael Wendelboe Hansen, Peter D. Ørberg Jensen and Bent Petersen

PART III LOOKING FORWARD: ECLECTIC PERSPECTIVES ON EMERGING MARKETS

11 Emerging paradigms of corporate governance and managerial professionalization in family firms
Kavil Ramachandran, Shefali Joshi and Navneet Bhatnagar

12 Multi-level reputation influences on Latin America’s inward and outward foreign direct investment
William Newburry and Abrahim Soleimani

13 The internationalization of hidden champions: setting the context for advancing research on emerging market strategies for German Mittelstand firms
Christian Landau, Amit Karna and Florian Täube

14 Managing at the edge of chaos: Middle East North Africa – perspectives for international management
Melodena Stephens Balakrishnan

15 Government policy uncertainty and corporate investment in emerging markets
Chaiporn Vithessonthi

Index