The Political Economy of China’s Great Transformation

Xingyuan Feng, Christer Ljungwall and Sujian Guo

With Foreword by Carsten Herrmann-Pillath
Contents

List of figures  vii

List of tables  viii

Foreword by Carsten Herrmann-Pillath  x

Preface  xvi

PART I
Political transformation in China  1

1  Political development in contemporary China  3

2  The "Chinese Dream" deconstructed: values and institutions  24

PART II
Economic transformation in China  45

3  Re-interpreting the "Chinese Miracle"  47

4  Private sector development as the key to Chinese economic development  70

5  Capital freedom: evidence from China's provinces  84

PART III
Fiscal transformation in China  97

6  Fiscal federalism: a refined theory and its application in the Chinese context  99

7  Local government debt and municipal bonds in China: problems and a framework of rules  121
vi Contents

8 Competitive governments, fiscal arrangements and the provision of local public infrastructure in China: a theory-driven study of Gujiao municipality 147

9 Features, problems and reform of the county fiscal administrative system in China 198

Index 238