Self-determinable Development of Small Islands
Contents

Part I Okinawa Agenda

1 US Military Bases and Human Security in Okinawa .................. 3
   Eiichi Hoshino

2 Formation and Development of an Okinawan Global Network Using an Island Hub ....................................................... 33
   Hisamitsu Miyauchi

3 Ryukyu Kingdom Diplomacy with Japan and the Ming and Qing Dynasties ................................................................. 55
   Kazuyuki Tomiyama

4 Language Revitalization Efforts in the Ryukus .......................... 67
   Masahide Ishihara

Part II International Context

5 Geopolitics, Self-Determination, and China's Rise in Oceania ...... 85
   Terence Wesley-Smith

6 The Similarities and Differences Between Tensions Over the Senkaku Islands and Dokdo Island ...................................... 101
   Myong-Chan Lee

7 Taiwan's East and South China Sea Policies and the US Factor ... 115
   Cheng-Yi Lin

Part III Economic and Social Development

8 Small Island Developing States and Globalization: Development Potential ............................................................... 133
   Tetsuo Umemura
Contents

9 Small Island Destinations and International Tourism: Market Concentration and Distance Vulnerabilities
Jorge R. Ridderstaat and Peter Nijkamp

10 Self-Determination for the Communication Policy in the Pacific Islands
Rieko Hayakawa

Part IV Ocean Policies

11 Management of Islands and Their Surrounding Ocean Areas and Japan's Ocean Policy Under the New Ocean Regime
Hiroshi Terashima

Chris E. Ostrander

13 Challenges and Opportunities in Managing Remote Islands: The Australian Practice
Mary Ann Palma-Robles

Part V Indigenous Languages

14 Gefpå’go na Dinagi: Decolonization and the Chamorro Language of Guam
Michael Lujan Bevacqua and Kenneth Gofigan Kuper

15 Ainu Languages: Correct, Good, and Less So
Katsunobu Izutsu

16 Welsh Language Policy: A Long Twentieth Century
Patrick Carlin

Erratum to: Ryukyu Kingdom Diplomacy with Japan and the Ming and Qing Dynasties

Index