CROSS-SECTORAL COOPERATION
IN ORDER TO SOLVE
SOCIAL PROBLEMS

Edited by Beata Szluz
Tatiana Matulayová
Ilona Pešatová
CONTENTS

Introduction .................................................................................................................. 9

Šarka Ulčáková Social entrepreneur and its connection to the modernisation of the society .................................................................................................................. 13

Beata Szluz Partnership for combating social exclusion, on the example, the Subcarpathian social cooperative .................................................................................... 22

Katarzyna Blaszczuk Good practices against exclusion. An example of social economy in Podkarpackie Voivodeship ................................................................. 32

Piotr Frączek, Sylwia Drozd Social reintegration exemplified by the specific example of the social integration centre in Sanok ......................................................... 49

Ester Danihelková Approaching the concept of social economy in the CR through the prism of social work – reality and perspective ................................... 62

Vendula Gojová What can social work seek and find in the area of civil society? ............................................................................................................................. 76

Paweł Walawender Inter-sectoral cooperation exemplified by EU financed projects implemented in Podkarpackie Voivodeship .................................................... 88

Mateusz Sikora Cultural anthropology and its practical dimension in projects which include cross-sector partnership ........................................................................... 99

Tatiana Matulayová, Ilona Pešatová, Zdeňka Michalová Opportunities for development of social work in Czech schools ............................................................. 107

Maria Shved Professional competences of a social teacher in the context of cooperation without borders ............................................................... 125

Monika Łagowska-Cebula A graduate in the labour market – a partnership for problem solving ............................................................................................................ 136

Dana Rosová The meaning of life for unemployed people ........................................... 147

Jitka Reissmannová Experiential learning – developing prosocial students of the Department of health education faculty of education, Masaryk University in Brno ........................................................................................................ 160

Marie Chrásková The perception of a health disability within society in the context of volunteering and the attitude of Czech and Polish university students to persons with a health disability ........................................... 172
Małgorzata Stępka  Help for the terminally ill and the dispute over the permissibility of euthanasia ................................................................. 191
Aleksandra Rachwał  Conflict management and its diagnostics in social structure relationship networks ............................................................. 208
Michaela Hřínová, Jana Majerová  Social issues in the Czech elementary school curriculum as related to children with specific educational needs and in the context of cooperation with professional institutions .............. 216
Dana Rosová, Olga Orosová, Eva Žiaková  The meaning of life, self esteem, and social support of homeless people .................................................. 234
Elżbieta Szczygiel  Children rough sleepers – from the analysis of the phenomenon to an attempt to solve the problem ........................................... 244
Helena Kalábová, Jan Jihlavec  Family in postmodern society .................................................. 254
Svitlana Kohut  Cooperation of educational and social institutions in solving problems of the contemporary family .................................................. 264
Magda Urbańska  Inter-sectoral cooperation for solving the problems of working parents – ad hoc activities or long-term policy? ................................. 275
Serhiy Troyan, Pawel Troyan  The volunteer movement in Ukraine and its role in the cross-sectoral partnership .................................................. 287
Agnieszka Belcer, Anna Wojnarowska  Development of partnership and cooperation to counteract social exclusion phenomena. To start... why partnership? .................................................................................. 302
Notes for authors ......................................................................................................................... 316