BORDERLAND CAPITALISM

Turkestan Produce, Qing Silver, and the Birth of an Eastern Market

KWANGMIN KIM

STANFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Stanford California
Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

1 Beg, Empire, and Agrarian Developments in Central Asia, 1500–1750 19
2 Capitalist Imperatives and Imperial Connections, 1759–1825 47
3 The “Holy Wars” of the Uprooted, 1826–30 90
4 The “Just and Liberal Rule” of Zuhûr al-Dîn, 1831–46 126
5 Global Crises of Oasis Capitalism, 1847–64 156
Conclusion 184

Appendixes
B. Muslim Notables Submitting to the Qing, 1697–1760, 203.
C. Muslim Aristocrats in Hami and Turfan, 208.
E. Oasis Rural Settlements in Yarkand, 1770s–1870s, 221.

Notes 225
Bibliography 263
Index 287