CORPORATE INSOLVENCY LAWS IN ABANDONED HOUSING PROJECTS

Issues and Prospects

NUARRUAL HILAL MD DAHLAN

PENERBIT UNIVERSITI UTARA MALAYSIA
Sintok • 2014
Contents

Preface  xi
Acknowledgements  xiii
Abbreviations  xvii
Cases  xxv
Statutes  xxxiii

1 Introduction
- Abandoned housing projects in Peninsular Malaysia  4
- Definition of abandoned housing projects  5
- Abandoned housing projects as reported by the case law  6
- Causes of housing abandonment  19
- Insolvency of housing developer companies  20
- Grievances of purchasers in abandoned housing projects in Peninsular Malaysia  30

2 Insolvency law and issues
- Types of insolvency of housing developer companies  33
  - Liquidation or winding up of companies  33
  - Purpose of liquidation  40
- Priority of debts payment  43
- The superiority of the creditors and contributories  44
- Effect of liquidation  45
- Provisional liquidator  48
- Receivership  49
- Scheme of Arrangement (SOA)  55
- Recommendations by Corporate Law Reform Committee (CLRC)  58
- Rehabilitation of abandoned housing projects  61
- Recent development on measures to deal with abandoned housing projects  67
- Special law to govern rehabilitation of abandoned housing projects  75
3 Case study one: K&T Development Sdn. Bhd.

Summary of the project 83
The winding up and post winding up stage 85
   Issues and problems 95
   Legal analysis 103
Recommendations by the Corporate Law Reform Committee 112
The appointment of Judicial Manager 114
The improvement in the appointment and powers of Receiver and Manager 116
The establishment of Corporate Voluntary Arrangement 117

4 Case study two: Saktimuna Sdn. Bhd.

Summary of the project 125
The winding up and post winding up stage 127
Rehabilitation of phases 1B and 2 128
Problems in the rehabilitation of phase 1A and 2 130
Legal analysis 137

5 Insolvency laws in the United Kingdom and its possible application to abandoned housing projects

The purpose of insolvency law 169
Liquidation of companies in the United Kingdom 170
Liquidator's removal 183
Priority of payment 184
Other insolvency approaches in dealing with abandoned housing projects in the United Kingdom 190
Receivership 190
Administration 199
Company Voluntary Arrangement (CVA) 204

6 Insolvency laws in the Republic of Singapore and its possible application to abandoned housing projects

Liquidation in Singapore 212
Powers of liquidator in compulsory winding up 213
Priority of payments in compulsory winding up 216
Receivership 220
Judicial management 222
Scheme of Arrangement (SOA) 229
7 The way forward to improve corporate insolvency law and practice in dealing with abandoned housing projects

Proposal for a new provision under Act 118 incorporating regulations governing rehabilitation of abandoned housing projects 249

Recommendations for amendments of liquidation provisions under the companies act 257

Recommendations for amendments of receivership provisions under the companies act 267

Recommendations for amendments of Scheme of Arrangement (SOA) provisions under the companies act 268

Recommendations for amendments to the CLRC's proposals in regard to SOA, judicial management, receivership and CVA 270

Appendices

Appendix 1: The number of abandoned housing units according to states and types of houses until June 2005. 273

Appendix 2: The total number of abandoned housing projects, housing units, purchasers and estimated project values which have potential for rehabilitation according to states until June 2005. 274

Appendix 3: The number of abandoned units with potential for rehabilitation according to states and types of houses until June 2005. 276

Appendix 4: The total number of housing units which have potential for rehabilitation and under probability according to states and types of houses until June 2005. 277

Appendix 5: The total number of abandoned units which have potential and ready for rehabilitation according to states and types of houses until June 2005. 278

Appendix 6: The total number of abandoned units which have potential for rehabilitation and are in the course of construction according to states and types of houses until June 2005. 279
Appendix 7: The total number of abandoned housing units which have been taken over by other developers according to states and types of houses until June 2005.

Appendix 8: The total number of abandoned housing projects, housing units, purchasers and the estimated projects values which have been taken over by other developers according to states until June 2005.

Appendix 9: The total number of houses which are not suitable for rehabilitation according to states and types of houses as of June 2005.

Appendix 10: The total number of abandoned houses which are not suitable for rehabilitation according to states until June 2005.

Appendix 11: The total number of abandoned housing units which have been completely rehabilitated which CF according to states and types of houses until June 2005.

Appendix 12: The total number of abandoned housing units which have been rehabilitated without CF according to states and types of houses until June 2005.

Appendix 13: The total number of abandoned housing projects, unit of housing, purchasers and estimated value of projects which have been fully rehabilitated according to states until June 2005.

Appendix 14: Data on abandoned housing projects and their rehabilitation until June 2005.

Appendix 15: The total number of abandoned housing projects, housing units, purchasers and estimated sales value of projects from year 1990 until June 2005.

Appendix 16: The total number of abandoned housing projects, housing units, purchasers and estimated value of projects according to status of rehabilitation until June 2005.

Appendix 17: The total number of abandoned housing projects, housing units, purchasers and estimated value of projects according to states until June 2005.
Appendix 18: The total number of abandoned housing units according to states and types /categories of cost of housing until June 2005.

Appendix 19: 62 Projects which are being rehabilitated by the original developer/white knight/SPNB (from 1990 until 15 October 2011).

Appendix 20: 32 Projects which have been extracted from list of abandoned housing projects (completed) from 1990 until 15 October 2011.

Appendix 21: 22 Abandoned housing projects - initial plan for rehabilitation (in search of rehabilitation party) from 1990 until 15 October 2011.

References

Index