EDUCATING FOR RESPONSIBLE MANAGEMENT
Putting Theory into Practice

Edited by Roz Sunley and Jennifer Leigh
Contents

Foreword ............................................................................................................................... vii

The Six Principles of PRME ................................................................................................... x

1 Introduction .......................................................................................................................... 1
   Jennifer S.A. Leigh and Roz Sunley

2 Development of responsible management education and the Principles for Responsible Management Education in context .......... 13
   Ross Hayes, Carole Parkes and Alan Murray

3 Establishing a foundational responsible learning mind-set for business in the 21st Century ................................................................. 28
   Roz Sunley and Michael Coleman

4 Choosing food yet consuming plastic: Learning to notice the difference in management education ................................. 52
   Maria Humphries, Anna Casey-Cox and Kahu Dey

5 Experiential learning through shared responsibility and risk ........................................... 71
   Alan Wagenberg and Roberto Gutiérrez

6 Walking the talk: Empowering undergraduate business students to act on their values ................................................................. 93
   Melissa Manwaring, Danna Greenberg and James Hunt

7 Thinking Conversational Intelligence® for sustainable business relationships in an age of digital media ......................... 113
   Judith E. Glaser and Roz Sunley

8 Integrating the six Principles of PRME in practice through Pragmatic Inquiry®: A sustainable management case study .................. 136
   Scott Kelley and Ron Nahser
9 A holistic learning approach for responsible management education
Isabel Rimanoczy with practitioner commentary by Roger Saillant and Craig Teal

10 The Daniels Compass: Global business education for management professionals
Don Mayer and Bruce Hutton

11 Consciousness development for responsible management education
Dennis P. Heaton and Emanuel Schachinger with practitioner commentary by Chris Laszlo

12 Developing responsible managers through service-learning at Goa Institute of Management, India
Ranjini Swamy and Sheila Keegan

13 The Global Integrative Module: A competence-based online learning experience to help future managers understand complex, global, social challenges
Anna Iniesta, Maika Valencia, Xavi Rovira, Josep Francesc Maria, Josep Maria Sayeras, Ricard Serlavos, Jose Luis Marin, Carlos Obeso, Jaclyn Wilson, Leonardo Caporarello, Jang Choi, Matt Statler and Gianmarco Gessi

14 Management education and social class: Can managers do more to encourage social equality and meritocracy in the workplace?
Kristi Lewis Tyran and Joseph E. Garcia with practitioner commentary by Debbie Ahl

15 Drivers, barriers and enablers of institutionalizing responsible management education
Charlotte Warin and Eshani Beddewela with practitioner commentary by Christopher Cowton

16 Teaching methods and the Kolb learning cycle: Pedagogical approaches in the Principles for Responsible Management Education domain
Jeanie M. Forray, Jennifer S.A. Leigh and Janelle E. Goodnight with practitioner commentary by Dean Cycon

17 Conclusion: Managing our students' learning through our professional practice
Jennifer S.A. Leigh

About the contributors

367