

Promoting fair migration

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR OFFICE GENEVA

Contents

---

	Page
Summary.....	v
Introduction .....	1
Context.....	2
A global view of international labour migration .....	3
Global policy debates on migration governance .....	7
Migration and development .....	8
Regional and related developments .....	10
Reports by member States: The situation on the ground .....	12
Labour migration flows .....	13
Remittances .....	14
Family reunification .....	15
Migrant workers in the national workforce .....	15
Historical and institutional background .....	16
Ratifications.....	20
Part I.       The impact of the instruments.....	23
Chapter 1.   Potential of the instruments .....	23
Rationale.....	23
Complementary and interdependent objectives.....	25
Flexible structure and provisions .....	27
Chapter 2.   Scope and coverage of the instruments .....	29
Parallel definitions in instruments .....	29
Defining labour migration .....	30
Migration for employment.....	30
International labour migration.....	30
Countries of origin, transit and destination .....	30
Spontaneous and organized migration.....	32
No requirement of reciprocity .....	32
Broad and inclusive categories of migrant workers .....	33
Diverse ways to categorize migrant workers .....	33
Application to the entire active population .....	34
The self-employed .....	34
Level of skill.....	34

	Page
Particular sectors.....	35
Permanent, temporary and seasonal migration .....	36
Persons in need of international protection .....	37
Family members .....	38
Exceptions .....	39
Workers in an irregular situation .....	39
Frontier workers .....	40
Seafarers.....	40
Short-term liberal professions and artists.....	40
Training and education .....	41
Employees temporarily admitted at the request of their employer for specific duties or assignments .....	41
Chapter 3. Governance of international labour migration .....	43
Pivotal role of social dialogue.....	44
Centrality of social partners to implementation of the instruments.....	45
Consultation with organizations of employers and workers .....	45
Promotion of equality of opportunity and provision of services .....	46
International cooperation.....	47
Multilateral cooperation.....	47
Regional cooperation .....	48
Bilateral arrangements.....	50
A web of diverse bilateral agreements.....	51
Varying subject matters of bilateral cooperation .....	53
National policies.....	55
National policy promoting equality of opportunity and treatment .....	56
National migration policy.....	56
Institutional arrangements for national migration policies.....	57
Measures to establish a national migration policy.....	58
Subject matter of national migration policies.....	59
National migration policies currently being envisaged or developed.....	61
Chapter 4. Protection of migrant workers: Recruitment and labour mobility .....	63
Regulation of recruitment.....	64
National mechanisms: The role of public and private intermediaries .....	65
Public employment mechanisms and migrant workers .....	67
Private employment mechanisms and migrant workers .....	68
Supervision of private recruitment .....	69
Documents issued to migrants .....	70
Regulation across borders .....	73
Services provided before departure, on arrival, and on return to the country of origin .....	75
Charging of fees .....	76
Provision of knowledge and information.....	78
Training and other services provided pre-departure and upon arrival.....	80
Translation and interpretation services.....	80
Special services for women migrant workers .....	80
Services on return to country of origin.....	81
Medical services and testing .....	82

	Page
Unregulated recruitment and migration in abusive conditions.....	83
Prevention of irregular labour migration .....	84
Forced labour and trafficking in persons .....	86
Chapter 5. Protection of migrant workers: Minimum standards .....	89
Basic human rights .....	89
Scope of “basic human rights” for migrants in an irregular situation .....	90
Varied levels of protection.....	92
Fundamental principles and rights at work .....	93
Trade union rights .....	94
Equality and non-discrimination.....	95
Gender equality .....	97
Protection from forced labour .....	97
Rights arising out of past employment .....	99
Remuneration .....	100
Social security rights and benefits.....	101
Costs of expulsion.....	103
Regularization.....	105
Chapter 6. Protection of migrant workers: Equality of opportunity and treatment.....	109
Exclusions from protection .....	110
Scope of the principle and actions required by the instruments.....	111
Convention No. 97 and Recommendation No. 86 .....	111
Convention No. 143 and Recommendation No. 151 .....	112
National equality policy .....	113
Legislative protections against discrimination.....	113
Varied measures to implement equality policies.....	115
Subject matters covered by the principle.....	117
Employment and occupation.....	117
Access to employment .....	117
Restrictions to access to employment.....	119
Access to employment of refugees, displaced persons and asylum seekers.....	123
Conditions of work.....	123
Remuneration .....	124
Occupational safety and health.....	126
Social security.....	127
Payment of benefits abroad.....	128
The situation in member States .....	128
Maintenance of acquired rights.....	131
Trade union rights.....	132
Housing .....	134
Chapter 7. Protection of migrant workers: Rights of employment, residence and return .....	137
Residence and loss of employment.....	137
Migrants with permanent residence .....	138
Temporary migrant workers .....	138

	Page
Burden on public funds .....	141
Alternative employment, retraining and relief work in case of loss of employment.....	141
Cost of return.....	143
Rights of residence in the event of incapacity to work .....	144
Employment and remittances.....	145
Chapter 8. Monitoring, enforcement and access to justice .....	147
Particular challenges in monitoring and enforcing the rights of migrant workers .....	147
Monitoring and enforcement mechanisms.....	151
Bilateral mechanisms.....	151
National mechanisms.....	151
Labour inspection .....	152
Specialized bodies and mechanisms.....	153
Courts, tribunals and dispute prevention and resolution mechanisms .....	154
Access to justice and judicial remedies .....	155
Disputes .....	155
Right to appeal expulsion orders .....	157
Sanctions against labour migration in abusive conditions.....	159
Specific groups requiring particular attention.....	163
Part II. Difficulties and prospects for ratification .....	165
Chapter 9. Difficulties in implementing the instruments.....	165
Need for full understanding of the instruments .....	165
Legal obstacles .....	167
Practical obstacles .....	169
Complex and sensitive nature of the debate .....	169
Particular groups of migrant workers.....	169
Administrative challenges .....	171
Lack of awareness among migrant workers .....	171
Difficulties observed by employers' organizations .....	172
Difficulties observed by workers' organizations .....	172
Chapter 10. Prospects for ratification .....	177
Measures to give further effect to the instruments.....	177
Difficulties preventing or delaying ratification.....	178
Part III. Achieving the potential of the instruments.....	181
Chapter 11. Proposals for ILO action .....	181
Policy support and technical cooperation needs.....	181
Comments from governments.....	181
Observations from employers' organizations.....	183
Observations from workers' organizations .....	184
Proposals for standards-related action.....	184
Comments from governments.....	184
Observations from employers' organizations.....	185

	Page
Observations from workers' organizations .....	185
Chapter 12. The way forward: Protecting migrant workers' rights through social dialogue, human rights and enhanced cooperation .....	187
Common commitments concerning equality for migrant workers.....	187
Protecting migrant workers' rights through social dialogue.....	188
Integral role of social partners.....	188
Multifaceted national policies promoting equality for migrant workers .....	189
Impactful international and bilateral cooperation .....	191
Fair recruitment for migrant workers .....	192
Effective protection of basic human rights and minimum standards .....	192
Effective enforcement of rights and access to justice .....	193
Particular measures for certain groups of migrant workers.....	195
Statistics and sharing of information .....	196
Conclusions and final remarks .....	197
 Appendices
I. Texts of the examined instruments .....	201
Convention No. 97 .....	202
Recommendation No. 86.....	213
Convention No. 143 .....	227
Recommendation No. 151.....	233
II. Report form sent to member States and social partners .....	239
III. Governments that provided reports .....	251
IV Workers' and employers' organizations that provided observations.....	253
V. Ratification status (Conventions Nos 97 and 143) .....	257