

Korinna Schönhärl
Editor

Decision Taking, Confidence and Risk Management in Banks from Early Modernity to the 20th Century

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

Introduction	1
Korinna Schönhärl
Part I First Part Recruitment of Personnel and Partners	13
The House of Morgan: Private Family Bank in Transition	15
Susie J. Pak
Top Careers as a Means of Risk Management in Organisations	57
Daniel Wylegala
Cooperative Governance in Banking: Consequences for Decision-Making Processes	81
Friederike Sattler

Part II	Second Part Risk Management Techniques	103
	Minimising Risk: Financial Intermediaries and Bond Issuing in London Before the Great War	105
	Anders L. Mikkelsen
	Financial Centres as Fields: Reflections on Habitus and Risk in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries	125
	Andrew Dilley
	The “Reputation Approach” and the Justificatory Function of Economic Calculation. Some Critical Reflections on Monika Pohle Fraser’s Analysis of Risk Management Techniques in the Nineteenth Century	147
	Sebastian Knake
	Investigating Attitudes to Risk in British Banking: A Case Study of Barclays’ Branch Banking System, c. 1900–80	173
	Matthew Hollow
	Between Novelty and Fashion: Risk Management and the Adoption of Computers in Retail Banking	189
	Bernardo Bátiz-Lazo
Part III	Third Part Methodological Tools for Historians: Network-Theory, Principal-Agent-Relationship, Behavioural Finance and Social Capital	209
	Social Capital Versus Commercial Profits: The Impact of Networks on Decision-Making in Early Modern Banks	211
	Nadia Matringe

Risk Management, Credit and the Working of Merchants' Networks in Early Modern Banking Daniel Velinov	235
The Role of Group Psychology in Behavioural Finance: A Research Starting Point for Banking, Economic, and Financial Historians Victor Ricciardi	269
Behavioural Finance as a Methodological Approach for Historians? A Field Report Concerning the Construction of the Canal of Corinth in Nineteenth-Century Greece Korinna Schönhärl	293
Considerations of Social Capital and Future Research in Banking History Morten Reitmayer	315
Index	333