Contents

Notes on contributors  x

1 Critical entrepreneurship studies: a manifesto  1
   CAROLINE ESSERS, PASCAL DEY, DEIRDRE TEDMANSON AND KAREN VERDUYN

PART I
Contesting neoliberal aspects of traditional entrepreneurship approaches  15

2 Social entrepreneurs: precious and precarious  17
   KARIN BERGLUND

3 Social enterprise and the everydayness of precarious Indigenous Cambodian villagers: challenging ethnocentric epistemologies  36
   ISAAC LYNE

4 Reasons to be fearful: the 'Google Model of Production', entrepreneurship, corporate power and the concentration of dispersed knowledge  51
   GERARD HANLON

PART II
Locating new forms of Indigenous and community-based entrepreneurship  71

5 Towards a barefoot community-based entrepreneuring  73
   ALIA WESTON AND J. MIGUEL IMAS
6 Challenging leadership in discourses of Indigenous entrepreneurship in Australia
DEIRDRE TEDMASON AND MICHELLE EVANS 91

7 Feeding the city: the importance of the informal warung restaurants for Indonesia’s urban economy
PETER DE BOER AND LOTHAR SMITH 108

PART III
Critiquing the archetype of the white, Christian entrepreneur 123

8 Injecting reality into the migrant entrepreneurship agenda
TREVOR JONES, MONDER RAM AND MÁRIA VILLARES 125

9 Bringing strategy back: ethnic minority entrepreneurs’ construction of legitimacy by ‘fitting in’ and ‘standing out’ in the creative industries
ANNELIES THOELEN AND PATRIZIA ZANONI 146

10 A critical reflection on female migrant entrepreneurship in the Netherlands
KAREN VERDUYN AND CAROLINE ESSERS 161

PART IV
Challenging the gendered subtext in entrepreneurship 177

11 Critically evaluating contemporary entrepreneurship from a feminist perspective
SUSAN MARLOW AND HAYA AL-DAJANI 179

12 On entrepreneurship and empowerment: postcolonial feminist interventions
BANU ÖZKAZANÇ-PAN 192

13 Bridging the gap between resistance and power through agency: an empirical analysis of struggle by immigrant women entrepreneurs
HURIYE YERÖZ AYGÖREN 206
PART V
Deconstructing entrepreneurship 223

14 The governance of welfare and the expropriation of the common: Polish tales of entrepreneurship 225
DOROTA MARSH AND PETE THOMAS

15 Deconstructing ecopreneurship 245
ANNIKA SKOGLUND

Index 263