Contents

1 Introduction: The Global Shift in Economic Power to Asia and the Challenges of Africa’s Industrialisation in the Twenty-First Century 1
Lauren Okolo

Part I Chinese Perspective in Africa 21

2 ‘Safari Tour’ and Zhou’s Dream of Mao’s Land in Africa 23
Young-Chan Kim

3 From White Elephants to Flying Geese: China in Africa a New Model for Development or More of the Same 55
Marina Thorborg

4 Cyrildene Chinatown, Suburban Settlement, and Ethnic Economy in Post-Apartheid Johannesburg 81
Liang Xu
5 China's Energy Diplomacy Towards Africa from the Perspective of Politics
Cheng Aiqin and Cai Jianhong

Part II Chinese Companies in Africa

6 The China Challenge: Cameroonian Between Discontent and Popular Admiration
Ute Röschenthaler and Antoine Socpa

7 The Economic Determinants of Chinese Foreign Direct Investment in Egypt
Hany Elshamy

8 Learning to Collaborate: The Case Study of a Chinese–Kenyan CSR Effort
Irene Yuan Sun and Wang Yuan

9 China and Namibia: An All-Weather Friendship Investigated
Henning Melber

10 "Unequal Sino-African Relations": A Perspective from Africans in Guangzhou
Dong Niu

11 Conclusion: An Argument for a Development Paradigm in Africa That Reconciles the Washington Consensus with the Beijing Model
Simplice A. Asongu and Jacinta C.Nwachukwu

Index